Furious Lover Slays Landlady

Argument Over Money for Beer Blamed in Fatal Shooting

Drinking parties have been blamed for their share of violence. Also figuring in countless temper flares are common-law marriages and arguments over money.

All three of these elements were present Friday night at 1605 Cornell. Dead as a result is 47-year-old Mrs. Nevada Porch.

The slaying came to the attention of the police just before midnight Friday when Officer David Small was stopped at 16th and Alford by a woman who told him her landlady had just been shot.

The woman, who identified herself as Mrs. Lillian Ellis, 29, then pointed out the man she said did the shooting.

Apprehended walking east on 16th, Joseph M. Victor, also of the Cornell address, quietly told the officer, "I'm the one you want. I shot her." He said he had planned

High Court Steers Clear of Details Of Desegregation

The Supreme Court has in a recent series of briefs indicated it does not want to become entangled in the details of working out racial integration in public schools.

By a unanimous vote Tuesday the highest court of the land refused to look into the steadfast stand against integration in any form taken by Prince Edward County, Va.

Another unanimous order rejected an appeal attacking the validity of North Carolina's pupil-placement law. The appeal was filed by a Negro who was told he had to use all administrative procedures under the state law before filing any complaint in federal court.

By an 8-1 vote the high tribunal refused to act on another appeal which contended North Carolina school boards should come forward with board programs for integration instead of handling Negro applications one by one under the pupil placement law.

In 1938 the Supreme Court upheld the validity of a similar Alabama pupil placement law. The court specified however, that a test of constitutionality could be made later if there was a contention the law was applied discriminatorily.

The justices also refused to re-

5-Week-Old Baby Found Abandoned On Doorstep

In last week's issue of the Recorder was an article in which the Department of Public Health and Welfare appealed to the Negro community to help in solving the ever present child-adoption problem.

The headline read: "Wanted: Parents For Orphaned Negro Babies." By no stretch of the imagination can this headline be interpreted to read "Wanted: Abandoned Baby."

However, this interpretation was seemingly reached last week when police were called to 619 E. Blake by three women who stated they were walking down the street when they heard baby cries. They investigated and found a five-week-old baby, fully dressed, in a basket on the porch of the house.

Unable to arouse anyone at that address, the police took the baby to General Hospital, where on last report, it is still without parents.

Park Board Drops Plans to Convert Douglass Course

Plan to convert Douglass golf course into a unique "sper course" were abandoned and another site is now being considered, City Parks Director A. J. Thatcher said recently.

A 44-acre tract at Vermont and Big Eagle Creek next to Big Eagle Park was selected for possible use after William Diddel, golf course architect, studied the 9-hole Douglass layout and found it inadequate for the proposed 6-tee, 18-green speed course.

Thatcher said he believes the Big Eagle land will be suitable either for the speed course or for a regulation 9-hole layout.

The city-owned area formerly was a tree nursery.

Miami Restaurant Closes Down Rather Than Serve Negroes

MIAMI—Owners of a restaurant in the Byrnes-Jackson Department Store in downtown Miami have closed it rather than serve Negroes.

The restaurant closed Sept. 28, when members of the Committee of Racial Equality protested against its discriminatory policy.

One of that day two members of CORE, Ishmell Howell, Negro, and Charles Siegel, white, were attacked and beaten by George Victor, a white electrician. The CORE members were peacefully sitting at the lunch counter waiting for service.

Dr. John O. Brown, CORE project director and prominent Miami eye surgeon, said that "Our people did not raise one finger. That's part of CORE discipline. We do not believe in violence. We believe in direct action but by peaceful means."

Previously the restaurant had

DOWN SOUTH IN NAPTOWN? Sherman Clark stares unbelievably at the wanton destruction apparently wrought by bigoted Hoosiers after he offered to sell a outside dwelling to "white or colored." Clark, of the White Front market, 540 Indiana, thinks the nearly $5,000 damage may have been done by racists who want the neighborhood at 22nd and New Jersey to remain lily-white. He said it appeared to be the work of professionals. The Clarks, who live at 3234 S. Meridian, say it will cost more than it's worth to repair it. (Recorder photos by Jim Burres)

House in Changing Neighborhood Is Property of Avenue Merchant

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

In what apparently was a vicious blow on the housing front of the "race war," vandals this week wrecked the interior of an Eastside house offered for sale to "colored or white."

The house is owned by Sherman Clark, proprietor of the White Front market, 540 Indiana.

Clark said he discovered the damage, estimated to be over $4,500, when he opened the dwelling Monday to show it to a prospective buyer.

Located at 2221 N. New Jersey, the house is in a neighborhood which is occupied by whites but rapidly being approached by the expanding Negro area on the near Eastside.

MR. CLARK, a native of Danville, Ky., and his wife are well known for friendly dealings with all people at the White Front market, where they practice fair employment and courteous service to all customers regardless of race. They live at 3234 S. Meridian.

"IT WAS THE WORK OF professionals," Clark told The Recorder with tears brimming his eyes Tuesday. "Teenagers couldn't have done it."

"They gouged a hole from the downstairs to the upstairs, and cut a hole in the roof. There was a hole made in the wall as square as you could want."

"We had just redecorated the house, and everything was destroyed — fixtures, rugs — the drapes my wife had bought were taken out of a closet and slashed to pieces."

"And they wore gloves — there

Scott O. Mays Escapes Chair, Draws Life Term

SCOTT O. MAYS

Scott O. Mays, accused of shooting and stabbing his estranged wife to death on the steps of the Marion County Courthouse escaped a possible date with the electric chair Tuesday, in Boone County Circuit Court at Lebanon.

Mays originally scheduled to be tried on a first degree-murder count, was allowed to enter a guilty plea on a lesser charge of second-degree murder. A second-degree murder conviction carries a mandatory life sentence.

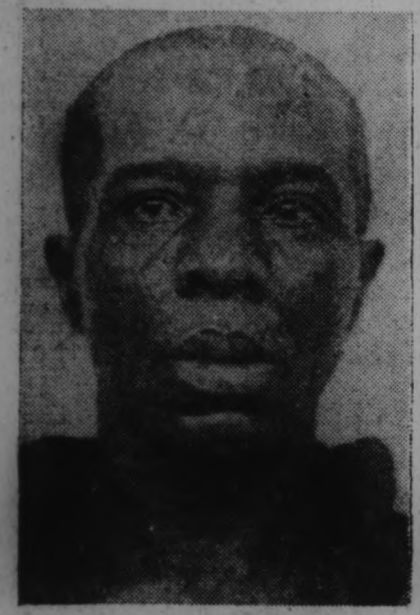

Gerald E. Stinson, Marion County deputy prosecutor, had said the state would seek the death penalty for 36-year-old Mays.

He had subpoenaed County Commissioner J. Wesley Brown and John A. Royse, an attorney who reportedly took the long-blade knife from Mays' hand. Both men witnessed the attack.

The case was transferred to Boone County after Mays' attorney, William S. Mercuri, filed a change of venue in Marion County Criminal Court.

"When Frank got back, we were sitting at the kitchen table and Nevada was standing in the middle of the room near a stairway that runs catty-corner from the kitchen."

"I had the gun in my pants pocket and Nevada started toward me."

"During the time we had been arguing, I had told her if she didn't leave me alone, I would kill her."

SHARP BLASTS POLICE TACTICS AT FAC MEET

Alleged Victim Of Police Abuse Asks Jury Trial

Upholding his protest that he was beaten so badly by two policemen while being accused of running a red light, Howard Shields, 62, 718 E. 17th, has requested a jury trial.

Shields was arrested Aug. 22 by two policemen after he allegedly backed his car into one of the officers who had stopped him for running a red light at 16th and College.

But that wasn't the way it was, according to Shields who said that he was handcuffed and beaten by the policemen when he accidentally put his car in reverse and bumped officer William Cliburn who was standing between Shields car and the patrol wagon.

Shields, who said Officer D. Raiser did most of the beating, suffered a blackened left eye, three broken ribs, and what appeared to be a knife wound in the abdomen.

Charges of reckless driving, drunk, resisting arrest, and assault and battery against a police officer were brought against Shields who was represented in court by Attorney Robert G. Mann.

YOUNG CON ARTIST NABBED

A 7-year-old girl went to a grocery at 25th and Guilford with a dollar her mother had given her. Pretending to be an employee, a 12-year-old girl accepted her dollar for a 49-cent purchase, paid it to the cashier and returned 9 cents to the little girl.

"I am interested in assisting all Negroes in gaining their rightful place in Indianapolis — not in the elevation of just one or two," Bill Sharp, Republican mayoralty candidate, said at a public forum Monday night at the FAC Home.

Sharp made the statement in reply to Mayor Charles Boswell, who spoke before him.

Mayor Boswell said the Democratic administration had acted favorably in matters of interest to the Negroes of the city. He pointed to the appointment of Anthony Watkins as police captain and the election of Mercer M. Mance as superior court judge.

"So they gave Watkins a better job," Sharp challenged, "and Mance was elected."

"That's just two Negroes What about the other 37,000 Negroes in Indianapolis?" the youthful mayoralty candidate queried.

"IF I AM ELECTED mayor, I will do all in my power to assist all Negroes in gaining equality on all fronts and put an immediate halt to the wave of police brutality and other violent discriminatory acts that have been practiced in this city during the recent Democratic administration."

"Today in this community the average Negro is apprehensive about having a party in his own home because the Boswell police have made it a common practice to kick in doors without justification," Sharp went on.

HE'LL STICK AROUND AWHILE: Now that it appears the Indianapolis Redevelopment Commission will allow his remodeled house to stand, Thomas Williams, under the "sidewalk supervision" of his young son, starts to put up his storm windows for the winter. Earlier, commission members had indicated they would raze the dwelling at 2945 Sangster because it is 80 feet from the front property line. Houses being built under the redevelopment program will be just 40 feet back. In his appeal to the commission, Williams said he had spent $10,000 on his attractive home over the past 10 years. Pre-Election Forum to Feature City School Board Candidates

With the municipal elections only a few weeks away, many people are looking forward to the public forum planned for Tuesday, Oct. 20, at 7:30 p. m., sponsored by the Attucks Alumni Association.

Major participants will be candidates for election to the Board of School Commissioners, including the only Negro in the running, Rev. Clinton M. Marsh, pastor of Witherspoon United Presbyterian Church.

The school board is the administrative and governing body for the public school and library system and handles questions of pupil and teacher integration, new physical plants, teacher salaries and school curriculums.

It is the opinion in several quarters that the public ought to get a good look at the candidates before the election and hear candidates' plans on many of these questions.

Tuesday's meeting, open to the public with no admission charge, is fully endorsed by PTAS, churches, fraternities and other civic and social organizations.

Ex-Grocery Boy Gets Top Post With New Supermarket Outlet

A new young chain grocery store operation opens its third outlet here next Thursday in a completely new and newly furnished store at 29th and Northwestern.

Only three years old, the new 7-11 chain carries several thousand different brands of merchandise. The new operation will be under the leadership of an enterprising young Negro, Clarence Ridley, according to the owners.

Ridley, a former grocery boy who had been connected in an important post with another chain, has worked for 7-11 stores for some time. Promoted to his present post, Ridley has worked hard and is well versed in all phases of grocery merchandising. Married, he is the father of three children.

The company headed by three prominent Indianapolis businessmen has spared no effort or money in order to bring to the community another first-class store.

The top company executives are Zelton Weisz, Harry Frankovitz, and Ben Mendelsohn.

Weisz said, "We are leaving no stone unturned and are taking a lot of pride in developing this as the finest store in our chain. It will be completely modern with every detail covered to assure our customers the finest in groceries and meats."

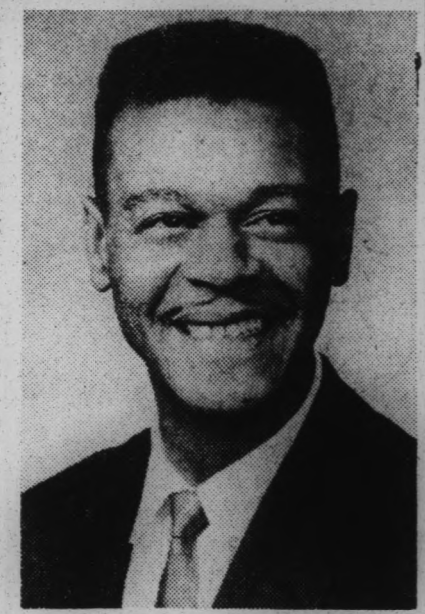

"Special refrigeration has been installed so our meats and produce will be in the best of condition, as emphasis will be placed upon cleanliness," Frankovitz added.

"Our employment policy will offer new opportunities to young Negro boys and girls, with a very large percentage of our personnel Negro. We are proud that we have recruited the personnel," Mendelsohn said.

The other two stores in the chain are located at 46th and College and 30th and Sherman Drive.

A three-day radio program playing Ringo, over station WCEE will feature Bill Hall at the mike. The program will emanate from the Northwestern supermarket, Ridley said.

This store will offer the best in brand-name merchandise, Ridley pointed out, with special emphasis on condiments, cheeses, pickles and all well-known brand name foods.

charges, Sharp said. "No one is safe anymore. While thugs beat, rob and rape, Boswell police hide behind trees attempting to nab traffic violators to fill quotas imposed by the mayor."

"And if that's not bad enough, the cases of unprovoked police attacks against Negroes are higher than they have ever been in the history of the city," Sharp stated. "The entire Police Department will be thoroughly cleaned up if I am elected," Sharp promised. "We'll start at the top and go all the way to the bottom."

"I absolutely will not tolerate any brutality of any kind on the part of our police officers. And I can assure you that any officer found guilty of practicing race hatred on any level will be given the maximum punishment the law provides."

Sharp, who gained a reputation while serving as a deputy prosecutor under Frank Fairchild and John Tindler, asked Boswell to define what he meant when he said the Democratic administration had been a "friend to the Negro."

"Did Boswell act out of friendship to the Negro when he killed the Mayor's Commission on Human Rights?" he demanded.

Freedom Fund Dinner To Fete Noted Singer

NEW YORK — Miss Marian Anderson will be guest of honor at the third annual NAACP Freedom Fund dinner in the Hotel Commodore here, Sunday, Dec. 6.

Announcement of the celebrated singer's participation in the gala $100-per-couple dinner was made by Jackie Robinson, co-chairman with Mrs. Marguerite Belafonte, of the association's 1959 Freedom Fund campaign.

Meanwhile, more than 100 members of the dinner-sponsoring committee launched an active ticket-selling campaign with a view to filling to capacity the vast ballroom of the Hotel Commodore.

Heading the general dinner committee in this sales campaign are Dr. George D. Cannon and Cornelius McDougald, New York attorney.

Co-chairmen of the committee include Kivie Kaplan, Duke Ellington, Mrs. Effie Gordon, George Gregory, Oscar Hammerstein II, Miss Rose Morgan, Dr. Alf E. Thomas Jr., Dr. Harry J. Greene, and Dr. Cecil Marquez. The dinner this year is expected to top those of former years. The committee has set a goal of 1,600 dinner guests for the occasion.

will be to reactivate the commission and attempt to direct it in the effective performance of the program it was set up to accomplish," Sharp concluded.

Relatives Blame Heart Attack In Death of Church Worker, 59

An active church worker and one of the founders of Gorham Methodist Church was found dead Monday at her home, victim of what relatives believe was a heart attack.

Mrs. Luella Livingston, 59, whom apparently no one had seen since last Thursday, was found lying on the floor at her home, 134 W. 21st, Apt. 12.

Edwin Ammons, 31, 3165 Grace-land, a nephew of the dead woman, said his aunt had a record of high blood pressure, and although Deputy Coroner George Leiton attributed death to consumption of moth crystals, Ammons said he was convinced it was a heart attack.

"She hadn't been dependent and wasn't in any kind of difficulty," he told The Recorder. "In fact she had made plans to participate in Sunday's Woman's Day program at the church."

She was a member of several church organizations at Gorham, he added.

Results of a post mortem examination are expected late next week. Services for Mrs. Livingston were held Thursday at Gorham, with burial in New Crown cemetery, Stuart Mortuary officiating.

Born at Jeffersonville, she had lived here 40 years.

Aside from her church affiliation, she was also active with Purity Chapter No. 51 of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Survivors besides the nephew include three stepsons, Henry, Oscar and Vern Livingston.

Lutherans Becoming Less Race Conscious

SOUTH BEND — At the 22nd biennial convention of United Lutheran Church men held here recently, Dr. Franklin C. Fry, of New Rochelle, N. Y., told the more than 400 delegates that an ever increasing number of Lutheran congregations are "practicing what they preach in the matter of human equality before God."

Dr. Fry, president of the United Lutheran Church in America, answered questions proposed to him by delegates at a session in Holy Trinity Lutheran Church.

In answer to the question, "How can many of our (Lutheran) church leaders work vigorously for racial integration in public schools and yet take practically no positive steps toward integration in our churches?" Dr. Fry replied that "an increasing number of the Lutheran churches are throwing open their doors to more of our races."

attention of the children as well as the adults. Thursday, Oct. 8th was youth night and Mr. Graham urged the boys to "treat their girlfriends as if they were sisters." And he urged the girls to "keep themselves pure and clean, and to stay with God and He will send them the right type of husband." Every Thursday will be youth night at the crusade.

The high court likewise rejected an appeal which contended the 14th Amendment to the Constitution, abolishing slavery, was never legally adopted. This appeal filed by former governor Dan Moody of Texas, asserted the amendment "has the underlying hatred of approximately a fourth of the people of the United States, who regard it as an expression of tyranny."

Harry Wallace In Atlantic City For Labor Confab

Harry Wallace, 620 W. 43rd, a member of Local 933 of the UAW-CIO Union, left recently for Atlantic City, N. J., where he is attending the 17th annual convention of the international union.

A delegate to the national convention for the past several years, he considers his perennial election a token of gratitude for his untiring efforts in the labor movement.

Mr. Wallace has been especially valiant in the fight against racial injustice and inequality of job opportunity. The job, he believes, can be done.

Another major concern for him is that today's teenagers avail themselves of every opportunity to learn a trade. An employee for 18 years of one of the nation's largest manufacturing firms, he believes automation will soon wipe out the bulk of unskilled jobs.

He and his wife, Beulah, are members of Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Bus Girl Reports Man's Molest Attempt

A bus girl at the 500 Club, 112 E. Vermont, reported to police last week that at 7:00 a. m. while she was walking near 22nd and College a white man stopped her and tried to force her into his car.

Clara Long, 26, 2040 N. College, described the man as medium built, 42 years old, having blond hair, a scarred face and driving a faded blue '50 Chevrolet.

Unsolicited manuscripts, pictures and cuts will not be returned unless accompanied by postage to cover same.

Supreme Liberty Life Insurance To Enter Hawaii

CHICAGO—The board of directors of Supreme Liberty Life Insurance Company at their Oct. 6, semi-annual meeting unanimously approved a recommendation by president, Earl B. Dickerson, that the company submit applications to do business in our fiftieth state.

Also, at this most important and historic meeting, the directors heard Dickerson's report of a profit increase of $110,000 to date in 1959, over the same period last year.

Authority was also given Dickerson to apply for admission in the states of Wisconsin and Nebraska.

In discussing the enormous possibilities in Hawaii, Dickerson said, "As we seek to enter the mainstream of economic activity of the nation we realize the vital importance of integrating all aspects of our operation, in order that we may reach the much larger and more stable market of the majority."

"IN MY RECENT visit to Hawaii, it occurred to me that here is the area that will provide us with a natural bridge into the mainstream economy. Our fiftieth state presents a virgin territory for our expansion and development."

Ray O. Simmons Cited For 25 Years' Work

Ray O. Simmons, veteran employee of the National Lead Company's American Lead plant, recently observed his 25th anniversary with the company, and was awarded a gold watch in recognition of his service.

Mr. and Mrs. Simmons reside at 2426 N. Capitol.

There is no color line in Hawaii, as witnessed by the recent election to two non-Caucasians to the Congress of the United States. A recent study of Hawaii revealed that the average life span of a Hawaiian is two years longer than that of a mainland American."

In addition to the above forward steps in Supreme Liberty Life's approach to selling insurance to the entire market, Dickerson informed the board that he and his staff are making plans to review again the great possibilities in the state of California with its two million Mexican-Americans.

The company has been doing business in California for several years, but as Dickerson stated, "Because these people have been denied their economic and political rights as we have been, they are very friendly toward us. This establishes a climate for our exploitation."

murder which shook the city, Mays had pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

The slain woman's grandfather, Virgil Offard, 69, was also scheduled to testify for the state.

He had accompanied his granddaughter to the courthouse where she obtained a court restraining order against Mays only minutes before he pumped three bullets into her body and then plunged a knife into her chest as she lay sprawled on the sidewalk.

In his statement to sheriff's investigators, Offard said he attempted to hide his granddaughter behind him when he saw Mays with the gun, but was told "Virgil if you don't let her go, I'll kill you too."

"I had to let her go," the distraught man related.

After Mays' guilty plea, Judge Charles Thompson ordered a presentence investigation as required by state law and set Oct. 14, as the date for sentencing.

On Wednesday, Mays stood emotionless before the bench as Judge Thompson ordered that he be remanded to the custody of the warden at Indiana State Prison at Michigan City to begin serving a life term for murder.

were no fingerprints.

Although the work of destruction must have taken hours, neighbors declared they had not seen or heard anything going on. Entrance apparently was gained through the basement.

THIS SUMMER CLARK put the house up for sale to either a Negro or white buyer and placed it in the hands of a Negro realty firm. He said there was no "For Sale" sign on the house, but said the neighbors were aware of the fact that he "didn't care who bought the property."

"I remember one day last summer a man living on Central — I can't recall his name — gave me a kind of warning when I was in the back yard cutting grass," Mr. Clark told The Recorder.

"He told me, 'I have to live here,' and I said, 'No, you don't have to live here.' I didn't think any more about it."

The Clarks had no insurance on the house. "It'll cost more to fix it than it's worth," Mr. Clark said ruefully. "But I'll have to do it."

Morgan State Profs Publish Textbook For College Use

BALTIMORE, Md. — Less than two months after publication, a new freshman English textbook by Morgan State College professors Nick A. Ford and Waters E. Turpin has been adopted for classroom use by colleges in eight states. G. P. Putnam's Sons, publishers, disclosed last week that "Basic Skills for Better Writing" has been adopted by colleges in New York, Illinois, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Arkansas, Texas and Maryland.

Putnam's, one of the most distinguished publishers in America, released the text July 1.

College Expenses May Be Deductible For Tax Purposes

CHICAGO — Parents of college students will receive $450 income-tax credit for tuition and fees, if Congress approves a proposal recently submitted to it.

The proposal, allowing a 30 percent tax credit for college costs up to $1500 annually, is endorsed by an editorial in the current issue of College and University Business.

According to the editorial, the proposal would allow taxpayers to subtract from the tax due the federal government each year, an amount equal to 30 percent of the cost of tuition and fees up to $1500. The maximum tax saving to any one taxpayer would be $450. All taxpayers, without regard to their income brackets, would receive the same benefits.

Having commented that "the trend of progressive income taxation at the federal level, general taxation at all levels, and ever mounting inflation threatens to make academic beggars of millions of families," the College and University Business editorial adds "it appears likely that the tax credit plan is one measure least likely to result in federal control of education or add any administrative load to the machinery of higher education."

In conclusion the editorial states that the proposal "merits serious consideration by legislators, college administrators, and those with children enrolled in colleges and universities."

Romeo Chapman

Services for Romeo Chapman, 51, 842 Udell, were held Oct. 10, at Springfield, Tenn., with burial there. He died Oct. 5 in General Hospital.

Born at Springfield, he had lived in Indianapolis 16 years and was employed as a dishwasher at the Chicken Shack restaurant.

Survivors include two brothers, Oscar and Walter Chapman; three sisters, Ida May Chapman, Hettie Lucas and Luella Bowers, all of Springfield.

and I pulled the gun. She grabbed at the gun, and I shot her. She ran toward the stairway and I kept on shooting till she turned and fell on the stairs.

"I left the house and walked down to 16th and Alvor where a uniform policeman stopped me and took me back to the house."

WHITFIELD AGREED the trio had been drinking before and after the visit to the funeral home.

"After we got back," he said in a signed statement, "Joseph asked Nevada for some money to buy some beer, but she told him, he didn't need any more, that we had had enough to drink."

He said Mrs. Porch complained of her legs hurting and said she was going upstairs to lie down.

"She started up the stairs," he related, "and I was sitting at the kitchen table eating a barbecue sandwich. Joseph was sitting across from me."

"Joe said to her, 'When I want some beer money, I want it, woman!'"

"Then I saw him come up from under the table with the gun, and he fired a shot at her. Joseph then got up and walked towards her on the stairway as she grabbed her stomach."

"Joe, please don't shoot me any more," Whitfield quoted the victim as pleading.

"I started running out through the front of the house," he said, "and as I ran, I looked back and saw him shoot one more time."

"I didn't hear any more shots because I had run around the corner on 16th to a friend's house where I called the police. I got back to the house when the police arrived."

Whitfield told investigators he had boarded at the Cornell address only about three months ago. But during that time, he said, that her and Joseph Victor had been living together as man and wife," he testified.

"I understand her real husband died about a year ago."

"About three weeks ago, we — Nevada, Joseph and myself — were in the living room and they were kidding each other. He made the remark, 'Someday, I am going to kill you, woman.'

"AND THEY BOTH LAUGHED." Whitfield, originally arrested on a preliminary charge as an accessory to the fact of murder for his alleged failure to notify police of the slaying, had the charge nolleed against him Tuesday after he agreed to testify for the state.

Victor was bound over to the Marion County Grand Jury on a murder charge.

Services for Mrs. Porch were held Thursday at Emanuel Baptist Church, with burial in New Crown cemetery.

Surviving was a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Gilbert; four sisters and three brothers.

Russians Get 'Dope' On American Negro

NEW YORK — The Russian people were introduced to the NAACP and American Negroes last week through the United States Fact Book, published by the Freedom Fund Incorporated, an independent agency.

The booklet is printed in the Russian language for distribution in the Soviet Union and among Russian-speaking people elsewhere.

Under a section entitled "The American Negro" accomplishments of the NAACP, starting with the reduction of lynching, are listed.

The Russian people are told that "progress is being made in solving the problems of the Negro." However, the publication adds, this progress seems slow to most Negroes.

Of the 60 pages included in the booklet, only one is devoted entirely to Negro Americans who represent 10 percent of the nation's people. No Negroes are pictured in the 27 photos included in the United States Fact Book.

The publishers said the purpose of the publication is to give "a better idea of our country with the hope that they (Russians here and abroad) will convey these ideas to their friends back home."

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. McGUIRE

A very inspiring meeting of the Eastside Better Business and Civic League was held Oct. 12th, in the lovely home of Mrs. Beatrice Holifield, 143 W. 43rd. Mrs. Ella Mae Holifield introduced the guests.

Plans were made for the pre-Thanksgiving dinner to be held Nov. 9th, at the home of Dr. L. B. Meriwether, and the Christmas Cheer Fund planned for the first Monday in December with Mrs. Josephine Williams as chairman.

The executive board chose your scribe to succeed Daniel Lee, deceased treasurer.

Mrs. Beatrice Holifield, board secretary, reported $893.74 now in the bank for the project members.

The league has a goal of 100 active members for the last meeting of the year. James Horton presided at the board meeting held at Mrs. Cora Wilson's home, 1921 Columbia.

Speaking of the Cheer Fund, let us not forget the Indianapolis Recorder Cheer Fund under the fine leadership of Mrs. Louise Bates. Try to be among the first to contribute. Many Eastsiders benefit from this fund.

Please help support this worthwhile effort.

Chicago was well represented by Negro women when several attended the National Council of Republican Workshops Third Annual Biennial Convention held Oct. 6-8, at the Continental Hotel.

I was pleased to meet the president of Chicago's Workshop, Mrs. William T. Davis, along with Messrs. A. R. Bron, Josie Clinkscales, Jack Daniels, Ethel Jones, Young S. Lewis, Robert McCord and Gusie Monroe.

The ladies reported a grand time but said they were disappointed to find our city so poorly represented. However, I was glad to see Attorney Frank R. Beckwith walk in and save the day for us. He extended the ladies a hearty welcome and a safe departure. Mrs. Davis lives at 4340 Vincennes.

Despite Saturday's rain the turnout was tremendous at the Billy Graham Crusade at the Coliseum. Mr. Graham preached on "The Sin We're Afraid To Mention" based on the Seventh Commandment.

Men ushers from the YMCA included Howard Connell and Herman Appleton under the supervision of Felix Moore.

Miss Willa Thomas, church columnist for the Recorder, and I were seated at the Press table with several other writers representing various newspapers.

The Bel Canto Ensemble will have a Fall Festival Oct. 18th at the Charity Hall, 1034 N. West, from 4 to 7 p.m. Buford Hazel is president and Ronald Davis is secretary.

The public is invited.

The Eastern Star Baptist Church will observe its anniversary and homecoming Oct. 19th through the 25th. Mrs. Beulah Bridges is chairman and Rev. P. C. Owens is pastor.

Members of the Emmanuel Baptist Church welcomed their pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. F. R. Hatcher home after an enjoyable vacation. The Hatchers participated in the services of First Baptist Church in Clarksville, Tenn.

The Indiana Wonders, under the management of Eddie Reedus, appeared in Cincinnati Sept. 27th.

Singers Calmus Salters, William Irvin, Wilbur Smith, Willie White and J. C. Jenkins reported a wonderful appreciative audience responded.

A representative audience listened to Mrs. Ruth Davis, wife of Dr. F. Benjamin Davis, pastor of New Bethel Baptist Church, as she gave echoes from her recent vacation in Haiti. The senior choir of the church rendered a musical program.

If anything could have caused me special pain it was the death of William Bullock, once a great usher and a person that did much for the City Usher Board Union. Mr. Bullock served in many capacities while working with the union.

I regret that information was not received in time to attend the funeral services held at Gorham Methodist Church where he served more than 26 years as an usher. All of us mourn with the widow Mrs. Mattie Bullock for such a great loss.

Members of the Missionary Society of Carter Memorial Baptist Church will observe their 1st anniversary Sunday, October 18, at 3:30 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Rev. William Miller and Mrs. Bessie Walls will serve as mistress of ceremonies.

Rev. Estee Adams is host pastor and Mrs. Lucile Love is president.

Local Omega Psi Phi Fratmen Launch 'Operation Talent Hunt'

Emmett F. Hardiman, chairman of the Zeta Phi Chapter Talent Hunt committee, announced that plans are under way for the annual Omega Psi Phi fraternity Talent Hunt.

The date for the community affair has been set for Nov. 19 at 8 in the auditorium of the ISTA building.

The Talent Hunt idea has as its main purpose the encouragement and assistance of talented young people in making a career of music. The local and Tenth District competition, the three most outstanding participants at both levels will be awarded United States Savings Bonds.

Further recognition is given through participation in the annual Omega Psi Phi fraternity Talent Hunt Demonstration on a national level. Providing the Indianapolis first place winner is winner in the Tenth District "Hunt", he will represent the district in the 46th National Omega Talent Hunt at the grand convocation of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., in New York City. This activity will take place in December.

The Omega Talent Hunt is a search for young people who possess talent in classical and semi-classical music. It affords an opportunity for youth to display such talent before select audiences and competent judges.

Zeta Phi Chapter hopes to discover more talent in this year's affair. The participants will include interested pre-college performers.

Participants may look forward to make application in the near future.

George McWain was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party given by his wife in their home on his 65th birthday, Oct. 3. Mr. and Mrs. McWain live at 344 W. 10th.

An attractively covered table was bountifully spread with chicken, country ham, vegetables, cakes and beverages.

Guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Hampton Vaughn, Horace Page and their son, Bill Edwards, Sam Haynes, A. B. Smith, Paul James, and William Major and son.

Also Mesdames Lucy Garrett, mother-in-law; Emma Jackson, Estelle Johnson, Anna Fleming, and Luella Smith.

Other guests were the Misses Betty Morris, Lucy Wells and Peggy Conley, Messrs. Clarence Haynes, William Thomas, John Montgomery and William Bailey.

Mr. McWain received many beautiful and useful gifts from his guests.

He has been employed at American Foundry for more than 27 years. There are no plans for retirement.

Foreign Students To Be Honored At Welcome Party

Foreign students here and at Franklin College will be honored Saturday evening, Oct. 17, with a welcome party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Elston, 1549 W. 64th.

The affair is sponsored by the Christian Youth Welcome Committee for Foreign Students and is the fourth such effort.

Guests are expected from Latvia, Cuba, Germany, the Holy Land, Canada, Hungary, China, Japan, Korea, England, Holland, India, Africa and many other countries.

The welcome committee was formed three years ago by the Misses Ruth Winters and Willa Thomas and Mrs. Ethel Bowman with its object to spread goodwill to visitors to this country and to help them to get better acquainted with the people here.

Kappas To Sponsor Pre-Halloween Fun

Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity, at a recent meeting at the Kappa Kastle, decided to open the fall season with a Pre-Halloween Round-Up on Oct. 24, at the Kastle.

It was announced by Bob Williams that plans for the gala affair have been completed and reservations will be taken immediately by John Hannah, Ellis Diggs and Mr. Williams.

Members stressed the various fashion points which will be in evidence at the affair. The Round-Up will be casual, and "beatnik" outfits, slacks and jeans will be in style.

Festivities will start at 9:00 P. M.

Mrs. Lillie Williams, 3316 1/2 Graceland Avenue is ill in Methodist Hospital Room 425. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Rapidly Changing Styles Leave Women with 'Nothing to Wear'

By EVELYN CUNNINGHAM

One of the chief reasons why women never have anything to wear is that many of the dresses which crowd their closets are dated or "old." A dress can become outmoded in just a year, so rapidly do styles change! It would seem that the whole female population would rise in arms and rebel against such constant style changes.

On the contrary, few things are as dear to a woman's heart as a new dress. She welcomes style changes. She joyously adopts the "new look" whatever it might be at the time. And, best of all, she has a ready excuse for complaining, "I've simply got to get a new dress."

McCall's Printed Patterns and their new Easy-Rule feature minimize the emotional wear and tear on self and spouse in getting a new dress.

The solid gray, made of synthetic mixture, has wide kimono sleeves, belting out just above the elbow (McCall's Printed Pattern No. 4882). The interesting right front belt may be placed high, a la Empire, or at the normal waistline. The dress opens on the left front, from neck to hipline, and is fastened with pearl buttons and hooks and eyes. There is a low pleat at the front.

Easy to make and wear in summer of cotton, linen or pique, it might well become an early fall entry and could be sewn of lightweight wool, tweed, flannel, wool broadcloth or jersey.

The youthful floral print dress (McCall's Printed Pattern No. 4998) has short puff sleeves, so much in demand this season. It has a scoop neck, fitted bodice and a six-gore skirt. The puff sleeves are stiffened at the top with crinoline or taffeta.

This dress may be made with no sleeves or have three-quarter length set-in sleeves. The interfaced contour belt is buttoned at the center back.

She was 8.

Celebrating his second birthday on the same day, Kelvin entertained Sherrilyn and Anthony Hendricks, Teddy Rice, James Alfred Ball, Marcia Brooks, Cynthia Tate, Rita Newton, Tony Douglas and Kim and Desiree Adams.

The children received many gifts.

Chatting with the FAC

By ELSA JACKSON

The regular FAC meeting Monday night was truly a most interesting one. Although the attendance was smaller than usual, the business of the meeting lifted everyone present to high spirits.

Several interesting communications of varied nature, letters of appreciation, and answers to letters, were a part of the business discussed.

Highlighting the evening were talks given by the following political figures present:

Former mayor and present city prosecutor, Phil Bayt; Mayor Charles Boswell; Bill Sharp, Republican candidate for mayor; Dr. L. B. Meriwether, candidate for city council; Dr. Rudolph Schrieber and Rev. Clinton Marsh, candidates for the school board of the Better Schools Committee.

In his talk, Mayor Boswell pointed out that juvenile delinquency and at least seven major crime brackets show a marked decrease in our city.

The Republican mayoralty candidate, introduced by Mrs. Margaret Boone, FAC member, told of his plans to correct the unhealthy conditions of our tax structure and of our present police department set-up. He later introduced his wife, Mrs. Betty Sharp.

The school board candidates said that they will try to improve all the conditions relating to education in our city.

Mrs. Mary Martin reported on the success of the Travelogue and dinner, which was the first one given on a week-day night.

S. W. James, FAC president, announced the educational committee's "Scholarship Fund" candy sale to be held soon.

The Golden Circle Girls Club met with Mrs. Eloise Pruitt on Wednesday night. Mrs. Elizabeth

Bollen is president of the club.

Mrs. Dorothy Green, 6543 Oakview, was hostess to the Puella Amicae meeting last Saturday evening. Mrs. Nina Brown, vice-president, assisted in serving a tasty dinner.

Mrs. Clara Bridgeforth, Miss Carrie Beasley and Mrs. Lenora Maholland were prize winners.

Miss Beasley, 502 W. Bernard, will be hostess to the next meeting and will be assisted by the president.

Paul Stafford has announced that the Pastels will rehearse in the club home every Thursday evening from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Miss Shirley Shaw has extended an open invitation to the youth of our city to join the young people of St. John AME Church in a Youth Fellowship Service, Oct. 25. Wallace Terry, of Second Christian Church, will be guest speaker at the 11 o'clock service.

Highlighting the afternoon service will be a panel discussion on "What Being A Christian Means To Me."

Youth groups from Marion, Richmond and Plainfield will be special guests.

Following the morning service an adult committee will serve dinner to all the young people.

Miss Shirley Shaw is in charge of the Youth Fellowship. Rev. A. Perry is pastor of the church.

Women's Federated Club News

By CLARA PHILLIPS

Mrs. Manie Gibson, president, presented her program for the year at last week's meeting of the Indianapolis Federation of Colored Women's Clubs.

The Altruistic club, of which Mrs. Clara Johnson is president, was hostess for the meeting.

Included in the plans presented by Mrs. Gibson is a special celebration of the Federation's golden anniversary in November in conjunction with the annual Woman's Day observance. Mrs. Vernice Ferguson is chairman of the Woman's Day activity and will work along with Mrs. Dorothea Breeding, chairman of the anniversary program.

Next meeting will be held Oct. 20 when an appreciation day for past presidents will be discussed. Theme of the program will be "The Life of the Lamplighters," with Mesdames Breeding and Ollie Douglass in charge.

The American Beauty club will be hostess group.

The Parliamentary Study club will meet Tuesday, Oct. 27, at 2034 N. Capitol, it has been announced by the president, Mrs. Josephine Woods.

The Lula Bean club held its first meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Lela Slaughter, 3132 Hovey. The second meeting was Oct. 8 at the home of Mrs. Emma Bartley, 937 Eugene.

The club will celebrate its anniversary on Thursday, Oct. 22, at 8 at 2034 N. Capitol. Miss Lucinda Stovall is president.

Mrs. Johnnie Porter, 1643 N. Arsenal, will be hostess for the Oct. 22 meeting of the Golden Leaf club of which Mrs. Charlene Hibbitt is president.

The Household Arts club will meet Oct. 20 at 8 with Mrs. Ellen Collier, 2250 Bellefontaine. Mrs. Lula Campbell is president.

The Four Leaf Clover club met Wednesday with Mrs. Ardella Hutchison, 2235 N. Harding, with Mrs. Mary Beckwith presiding.

Thursday Coterie met Oct. 15 with Mrs. Flossie Weir, 2250 Carrollton. Mrs. Luvenia Toles was co-hostess.

Newly elected officers are Mesdames Ollie Douglass, president; Chiffie Mimms, first vice-president; Verna Barnes, second vice-president; Sara Allen, recording secretary; Mary Proctor, assistant secretary; Glennie Taylor, treasurer; Ollie Drennan, chaplain; Ruby Avington, parliamentarian, and

'Sapphires' Is New Social Club

A group of young ladies met Monday at the home of Mrs. Anna Jacks to form a new social club and to elect officers.

Mrs. Wanda Taylor Reynolds was named president of the group to be known as the Sapphires club. Other officers include Miss Barbara Fletcher, vice-president; Mrs. Jacks, secretary; Miss Shirley Fletcher, assistant secretary; Miss Donna Sanders, treasurer; Mrs. June Reynolds Davey, sergeant-at-arms; Miss Gretchen Rayford, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Lucille Murphy, decorations chairman.

Also members of the new club are Mrs. Eleanor Baltimore Silver and the Misses Elora McCoy, Belle Bennett, Regina Bridgeforth, Sally Hester and Marva Barker.

Red and white were chosen as the club's official colors, and the club motto is "In Good Faith."

Next meeting will be with Miss Barker, 701 E. 21st, Apt. 3.

BETROTHED: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boone, 2444 Highland, have announced the engagement and approach marriage of their daughter Joan Marie to Robert Lyles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Lyles of the city. The wedding is scheduled for next month.

SORORITY AIDS PAL CLUB: Mrs. Geneva Johnson, basileus of Alpha Chi Pi Omega sorority, Psi Theta chapter, presents a check to Sgt. William DeJarnette and PAL Officer James "Bruiser" Gaines to launch the sorority's newest project, an arts and crafts class at Northwestern Community Center. The class, open without cost to all youngsters, will be supervised by PAL staff members, while Alpha Chi Pi Omega will supply materials out of funds from the annual "Best of Seven" awards show set for Saturday, Oct. 31, at the Indiana Roof.

'Best of Seven' Proceeds Will Support Charitable Projects

You can help to curb juvenile delinquency and bring cheer to many while enjoying a delightful evening yourself. If your question is "How?" the answer is "By attending the 'Best of Seven' awards show."

All proceeds above production cost will be used to maintain an arts and crafts class at Northwestern Community Center under Police Athletic League supervision, make a sizeable contribution to The Recorder's Christmas Cheer fund, support the Bethune-Cookman College foundation, national project for Alpha Chi Pi Omega sorority, sponsors of the annual affair; make a payment on a life membership in the NAACP, contribute to the United Negro College Fund and prepare baskets for underprivileged children at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Inasmuch as the "Best of Seven" is the only money-making project sponsored by Psi Theta (Indiana) chapter, the sorority especially urges the public's support.

Fortnightly Literary Club Uses African Theme to Fete Guests

Music from the lands of Beethoven, executed by the great English pianist, Dame Myra Hess, and recordings of African music from the French Colonies edited by Andre Schaeffner of the Musee de l'Homme Paris and Negro spirituals arranged and sung by Roland Hayes and the Howard University choir under the direction of Warner Lawson, set the background at the recent meeting of the Fortnightly Literary Club at its Guest Day affair held last Sunday, Oct. 11 in the Holcomb Garden House.

Scenery from the large picture windows revealed gardens with varicolored fall flowers, and inside there were many mementoes of the late Dr. Buckner, who at one time was the American Minister to Liberia. Dr. Buckner was the father of Mrs. Osa Woodall.

The tea table was set with an imported embroidered white linen cloth, the centerpiece was of gold and bronze mums and an exquisite silver tea service was laid at the ends of the table.

MRS. EDWIN MOTEN, president, and Mrs. John Patton, a past president, alternated at the tea table.

Mrs. Moten welcomed the guests and Mrs. Osa Woodall, program chairman, presented the guest speakers, Mrs. Helen Minor, a local teacher who has traveled extensively around the world, and George Goba, an African student who is now a senior at Indiana Central.

Mrs. Minor spoke of her many interesting experiences in Africa and Mr. Goba, attired in his native hand-woven cloak with matching toga, spoke of the many customs and various cultures and national aspirations of his native land.

Members of the club wore beautiful corsages of yellow mums. Original African bookmarks designed and executed by Mrs. D. Lavelle Walker, were presented to the more than 100 guests.

Friday, October 23

PROF. JAMES A. MUNDY

The Music Memorial Committee of the Fall Creek Parkway YMCA, is sponsoring a "Festival of Choirs", the first in a series of programs to finance the two pianos and organ presented to the building by them, Friday, Oct. 23, at Phillips Temple CME Church, Drake at West St., 8:15 p. m.

The climax of the program will be the "Hallelujah Chorus" by Handel and the "Festival of Choirs", the first in a series of programs to finance the two pianos and organ presented to the building by them, Friday, Oct. 23, at Phillips Temple CME Church, Drake at West St., 8:15 p. m.

Professor Mundy comes to Indianapolis after an absence of more than thirty-five years when he trained and conducted a 500 voice chorus in the late Tomlinson Hall in a full program of Spirituals and Classics. He is currently considered the dean of choir directors in Chicago, having to his credit, at least twelve music directors of that city as former proteges. More than ten thousand singers have been directed by him since he stepped before his first choir in 1912 in the Grace Presbyterian Church. In spite of his 73 years Prof. Mundy maintains a pace of activity comparable to his youth. For he cooperates a music studio, a popular ensemble of singers and directs the choir of Olivet Baptist Church. Prof. Mundy says, "I suppose a musician never grows old because he's always creating and there is always a new voice to train."

The Accompanists for the ensemble will be Mr. Russell Brown, organist, Mrs. Mary Wilson, pianist. Instrumental Soloists: Ronald Taylor, Ohio; David Hardiman, Trumpet; Melvin Jackson, Accordion.

Rev. Mary E. Johnson, who pastored at Alleyne Chapel Irvington, was appointed to relocate Messiah on the Eastside of the city.
The ministers of the Eastside Churches are invited to attend the opening.
Dr. Edwin Kenney, acting Presiding Elder, will make the declaration. The Zion ministers and their singing groups will participate on the program.
Our friends are invited to be present. Rt. Rev. Stephen Spottswood, Bishop.

An Appreciation

After thanking God, for His tender mercy to me and bringing me through my operation, I take this means of thanking Dr. Jacob K. Berman, Dr. Edw. J. Berman, Dr. Paul A. Littlefield and Dr. Reginald A. Bruce, the Nurses and Aides, of Methodist Hospital.
I especially thank Elder Ned Lewis and Elder Hazelwood, and friends for their prayers, donations, cards, flowers and personal courtesies. Thanks again and an abundance of the very best be yours always.
Sincerely,

REV. ALBERT WADSWORTH

Installation services for Rev. Albert Wadsworth will be held October 21, 23, and 25th, at the Messiah Baptist Church, 615 West 27th Street. The following ministers will participate in this Christian fellowship:
Wednesday, October 21 at 8 o'clock Rev. D. B. Dudley, of Galilee, will be the speaker.
Friday, October 23, 8 o'clock, Rev. N. E. Vincent, of New Era, will deliver the sermon.
Sunday, October 25, 3:30 p. m.—Rev. Z. P. Pittman, of Tabernacle, will preach.

Rev. Albert Wadsworth was born in Chattanooga, Tenn., moved to Indianapolis at an early age. He attended the Indianapolis Public School. He was converted at the 17th Street Baptist Church and worked under the leadership of the late Rev. J. B. Carter at 17th and 25th Street Church, as a Deacon, Trustee, Sunday School Superintendent and BYPU.

He organized the Laymen's League at the 25th Street Baptist Church, was Past President of the District League, Scout Master of Troop 187 which brought many young men into the Church weekly, in 1953.

Rev. Wadsworth accepted the call to the ministry June, 1954, was ordained. He attended the Indiana Baptist Seminary for a short while. He worked under the late Rev. J. B. Carter, until his death, afterward with Rev. Estee Adams, who was in charge of the Church.

After the Church called Rev. E. J. Odum, from Texas, he served as associate minister for two and one half years. Rev. Wadsworth trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding.
In all the ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy path. Prov. 3:5-6.

June 29, 1959, he saw fit to organize a Mission which was organized in his home, 415 W. 39th Street, with 12 members. It was named Wadsworth Mission. The Mission saw fit to organize a Church. August 19, a Church was organized.

Rev. Wadsworth is employed by the Link-Belt Foundry as foreman.

If I be lifted up I will draw all men unto me.
Sis. Leone Taylor is the program chairman. Bro. Ed. Cage, chairman of Deacon Board, Rev. Albert Wadsworth is the minister. The public is cordially invited.

Indiana, residing in Greensboro,

North Carolina, and that the defendant John U. Bosson and Florence Bosson, his wife, are non residents of the State of Indiana, residing in Phoenix, Arizona, and that all of such parties are necessary to said proceedings; that an affidavit for said on behalf of said

Plaintiff has been filed in said cause of action stating that all persons disclosed by the public records of Marion County, in the State of Indiana, or elsewhere, by under and through whom some claim, title or interest in said real estate might possibly be asserted, have been set forth in said complaint, to-wit: William Bosson, Jr.,

partment of Public Welfare; that the Plaintiff does not know whether the persons so named are living or deceased, or their legal residences or whether they are married or unmarried; that he does not know the names or whereabouts of the husbands or widowers or widows of such persons or persons as the case may be, if in fact there were or are such husbands or wives or widowers or widows, and that if such persons be dead, leaving heirs or devisees of said real estate the Plaintiff does not know their names or legal residences, and that such Plaintiff claims full and complete right and title to said real estate described in said complaint and to the interest therein, as against any and all persons whomsoever, and that it is the purpose of said Plaintiff in the above mentioned proceedings to quiet his title to all said real estate as against all of the above named defendants and as against the world; that said complaint so filed and which is now pending is set for hearing in

NAACP Youth Complete Plans For Coming Year's Activities

EVANSVILLE — NAACP Youth Council members were entertained recently in the home of their advisor, Miss Effie Thomas, 814 S. Kentucky. At the meeting a program of activities for the coming year, was discussed.

Among the activities discussed were bowling, skating, reading, motorcades and special community projects.

The first activity which will receive immediate attention will be reading. Members will spend several hours each evening at the Tri State Community Rest Home reading to the patients and discussing with them news and enjoyable events of the world.

The Tri State Rest Home will furnish the transportation when it is needed.

New members present at the meeting were Cherrie Don Curry and May Jo Curry.

Walter R. Brown was named assistant chaplain.

The senior choir of Independence Baptist Church sponsored their 11th annual civic tea Sunday, Oct. 11, in the social room of the church. A musical program was rendered by some local talent and tri-state guests.

Annual Women's Day was observed Sunday at Nazarene Baptist Church, with Mrs. Margaret Smith of Chicago as guest speaker.

At a meeting of the Youth Council Oct. 11th in the home of James Ashly, 412 John, the following members were named to represent the council at the state meeting in

Gary Oct. 23, 24, and 25:

Gerald Grinter, president; James Ashly, corresponding secretary; Angela Marshall, treasurer; Walter R. Brown Jr., assistant chaplain and Alize Pauley, recording secretary and the council's radio announcer. She was also named to represent Evansville in competition for the queen title during the awards banquet to be held Oct. 23 in the Marquette Park Pavilion in Gary.

Alternates named were Misses Patricia Harper, Lucille Harper, Sherry Curry, and Sandra Mitchell. New members attending the meeting were George F. Parrish and Carolyn Lawrence.

William Hardy, acting state president of the NAACP youth, and Miss Carole Stevenson, state officer and member of the National Youth Work Committee, were interviewed on the Evansville NAACP Youth Council broadcast Sunday, Oct. 11th. Miss Alize Pauley, the council's regular weekly announcer, conducted the interview.

Others who were in the studio were Dannis Harris and Howard Stevenson. They were special honored guests of the Evansville Youth Council at their Style Revue and dance held at the Hotel Vendome Oct. 10th.

After the broadcast the Indianapolis youth members worshipped at Liberty Baptist Church of which Rev. Charles H. King Jr., adult NAACP branch president, is pastor. After services they were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Booker Pauley, 414 E. Cherry.

Luke Phillips is ill in room 213, Welborn Baptist Hospital.

Mrs. Georgia E. Ferguson, 63, 522 S. Evans, died in Welborn Baptist Hospital Oct. 10. She was a member of New Hope Baptist Church.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Mary C. Cash, Evansville, and Mrs. Ethel Baines, Dorchester, Mass.; a son, James J. Ferguson, of Evansville; two brothers, Herschel Folks, Miami Beach, Fla., and Ernest Folks, Kansas City, Mo.; and eight grandchildren.

Henry Ford Sr., 617 Mulberry, died Oct. 10th in Welborn Baptist Hospital. He was a former custodian at People's Savings Bank and a member of Liberty Baptist Church.

Survivors include a son, Henry Ford Jr., of Evansville; two half-brothers, Sam Peay, Hopkinsville, Ky., and George Browder, Indianapolis.

Martha Leavell

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Russell Leavell, 65, 120 W. 26th, were held Oct. 9 at Trinity CME Church where she was a member. Burial was in Crown Hill cemetery.

Born at Trenton, Ky., Mrs. Leavell had lived in Indianapolis five years. She was a member of Solomon Temple, Daughters of Jerusalem, at Trenton.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Helen Thomas, Detroit; three sons, Nathaniel and Charles G. Russell, Indianapolis, and John W. Russell, Trenton, N. J.; a sister, Mrs. Helen Toliver, Hopkinsville, Ky.; four brothers, William Thomas, O. V. and DeWitt Burrus, Indianapolis, and Flavus Burrus, Cleveland, and eight grandchildren.

Mrs. Vera Garnett and Miss Dolores Tyler were guests.

Mrs. Cora Farrow is club president.

THE JOLLY GLEE CLUB met last week at the home of Mrs. Nannie King.

Mrs. Pauline Sargent led the opening song, and Mrs. Olive Lynch, president, read the Scripture lesson. A total of 18 members attended the meeting.

Handkerchiefs were distributed to members celebrating birthdays this month, including Walter Payne, Mrs. M. B. Fleming and Mrs. Annie McReynolds.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bobby E. Moore.

Around Anderson

ANDERSON — The Eastern District of the Federation of Colored Women's Clubs of Indiana met last week in Muncie at the YWCA.

The district awarded Miss Hazel Young a $50 scholarship to Indiana Business College.

The Phyllis Wheatley Club and the Phi Gamma Delta Sorority also donated money to help Miss Young finish her course. Miss Young, an outstanding graduate of Anderson high school also received assistance from various clubs and groups.

Mrs. Gertrude Weatherly, president of the Eastern district, and Mrs. Madeline Irvin, past president, were among those attending the meeting. Others included Mrs. Olie Jane Weatherly and Mrs. Martha Early. The Millie R. Hoffman and Friendship Clubs were hosts to the district convention. Next year the district will give a $50 award to a Muncie boy or girl.

The Bridgette Club was organized Sept. 14, at the home of Mrs. Shirley Jean Weatherly. Those present included Mesdames Rosanna Banks, Martha Broadnax, Martha Early, Georgeanna King, Mary Jane Newsome, Anna Rogers, Edna Thompson and Carol Weatherly.

Officers elected were Mesdames Martha Early, president; Margaret Broadnax, vice-president; Anna Rogers, secretary; Shirley Weatherly, treasurer.

The Junior Phyllis Wheatley Club met at a call meeting last week at the home of the adult supervisor. Officers were elected for the 1959-1960 club year.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 18, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Anna Durden, 621 W. 17th. Misses Patricia and Fay Irving will be hostesses.

Installation of officers will take place with Mrs. Hazel Minnefield officiating, assisted by Mrs. Pearl Johnson.

Officers elected were the Misses Patricia Irving, president; Dianne Cook, first vice-president; Barbara Brown, second vice-president; Amedra Broadnax, third vice-president; Joyce Minnefield, fourth vice-president; Sara Maxwell, fifth vice-president; Fay Irving, secretary; Rutha Jackson, assistant secretary; Mrs. Madeline Irving, treasurer, and Miss Madeline Taylor, parliamentarian and historian.

Others include the Misses Carolyn Hyatt, chaplain, and Nikkie Newsome, assistant chaplain. The ages of the 16 girls in the group range from 13 to 18.

The Youth Guild of Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church celebrated their first anniversary at the church last week. Miss Patricia Irving is president.

Mrs. Rosa Marsh spent Oct. 1, in Cincinnati, buying toys for the Hill Department Store at 9th and Meridian. She was later visited by her daughter, Mrs. Lena Slay and family of Indianapolis.

The Senior Phyllis Wheatley Club met at the council home recently with Mrs. Ida Montgomery serving as hostess. Mrs. Verda Cochran, president, was in charge. After the business of the day, a luncheon was served to the following guests:

Mesdames Verda Cochran, Gertrude Weatherly, Olie Jane Weatherly, Rosa Carter, Peggy Rickman, Francis Carter, Juanita Carter, Deloris Jack, Mae Newsome, Florence Hudson, Hazel Minnefield, Betty Streety, Cornelius Sparks, Theima Mills and Mrs. Laura Smitherman of Los Angeles. Mrs. Smitherman is a cousin of Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Shirley Weatherly.

The Inspirational Tabernacle singers of Indianapolis conducted a songfest last week at the Faith Tabernacle Church, with a number of singing groups participating.

Bishop Rosa Ramey was in charge as assisted by Mrs. Irene Harriett, Herbert Cunningham, and Mrs. Leila Wills.

"The Keeping Power of God" was the theme of the sermon delivered by Rev. F. B. Jones at the 11 p.m. service last week at Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church. The senior and junior choirs furnished the music, with Mrs. Francis Wills at the piano.

The Bethesda Baptist Church has announced that on Nov. 8, they will celebrate the 12th anniversary of their pastor, Rev. Henry McBride. The speaker will be announced later.

Mrs. Daisy Venardo and Mrs. Mary Means, of Gary, were recent visitors here to attend the funeral of Henry Gholston. Mrs. Venardo is the sister of Mrs. Henry Gholston. While here they were guests of Mrs. M. Irvin.

Henry Allen Gholston Jr., 70, 330 W. 15th died Oct. 2 at St. John's Hospital. Funeral services were held Oct. 5 at Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church, with burial in East Maplewood cemetery.

Born Sept. 22, 1889 in Lafayette, Ky., he was the son of Henry A. Gholston and Rosa Ann Ransom Gholston.

A resident of Anderson for 40 years, he was a member of Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church and a retired Delco-Remy employee.

Survivors include his wife, Bructa Gholston; two sons, Lawrence and Henry A. Gholston III; one daughter, Mrs. Lilly Leavell of Anderson; one sister, Mrs. Hortense Long of Scarsdale, N. Y.; one brother, Jesse Gholston of Milwaukee, Wis.; and six grandchildren.

North Star Federation Set for East Chicago

The Eastern District held a very successful meeting Saturday in Muncie, with Mrs. Gertrude Weatherly, Anderson, presiding.

The Millie D. Hoffman and Friendship clubs of Muncie were hostesses.

Women of the North Star District were to meet Saturday, Oct. 17, in East Chicago. Mrs. Bessie Henderson of Gary is district president.

Present at the Eastern District meeting were delegates from Muncie, Anderson, Richmond, Lafayette, Connersville and Indianapolis.

Those attending from Indianapolis included Mesdames Blanche Cross, state president; Lula G. Bean, a life member of the federation; Mamie Gibson, president of the Indianapolis federation; Haidee Wilson, chairman of the trustee board and president of the Central District; Fannie Bartlett, past state trustee and president of the Lend-A-Hand club, and Clara Phillips, chairman of the state executive board.

MISS MILLIE D. HOFFMAN, past state president and chairman of the national board for the NACGS, came from Lafayette with friends, including Miss Arletta Wintrop, a teacher in the Lafayette public schools.

Among those in attendance for the first time were Mrs. Olie Weatherly, first vice-president of the Phyllis Wheatley club of Anderson, and Mrs. Rosa Carter, past district president and present district club-organizer.

Also there from Anderson was Mrs. Madeline M. Irvin, past district president and a diligent worker among young people.

After the usual opening ceremonies and committee appointments, some interesting reports on work among the clubs were given. Mrs. Wilson reported that clubs are beginning to make donations toward storm windows for the Indianapolis Club Home.

A LOVELY MEMORIAL service was held in honor of Mrs. Ada Ware of Richmond, former recording secretary and an ardent worker in the district for many years. She died at age 83.

Plans outlined at Saturday's meeting included a Valentine party, graduation party, mother-daughter banquet, "Parade of Nations" and the crowning of "Miss Indiana" at the state convention in Gary.

Among officers installed were Mesdames Isabell Lacy, recording secretary; Alfreda Oakley, parliamentarian, and Brazillian Day, treasurer. Miss Hoffman conducted the installation rites.

Next year's meeting will be held in Richmond.

William Haynes

Funeral services were held Oct. 10 in the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home for William Haynes, 625 Lake, who died Oct. 5, in General hospital.

Mr. Haynes 57, was a native of St. George, S. C., had lived in Indianapolis 32 years. He had been employed by Kingan & Co., and was a member of Fidelity Lodge 55, Imperial Council of Shrine, and Gethsemane Baptist Church.

Survivors include a sister, Miss Rachel Haynes, St. George, and eight brothers, Leo Haynes, St. George, Curtis Haynes, Asheville, N. C.; Alex Haynes, Philadelphia; Nyles Haynes, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mose Haynes, New York; Coppin Haynes, Brooklyn; Odus Haynes, Cleveland, and Jess Haynes, Pearl Harbor.

Down HOPKINSVILLE Way

By JIMMY IRVIN

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. — The Laymen's League of Kentucky sponsored an appreciation program Sunday morning at Virginia Street Baptist Church, honoring T. H. Mason, president-emeritus of the organization. He is widely known in religious activities and served for a number of years as president of the league.

S. L. Barker, Owensboro, was guest speaker, and Mark Anthony, president, presided.

A delightful repast was served to out-of-town guests, after which an interesting program was rendered. Members of the women's Bible class of which Mr. Mason is teacher served as hostesses.

Rev. A. R. Lasley is pastor.

REV. S. L. STEWARD, widely known in Christian circles, recently retired from the active ministry due to ill health. He was pastor of Church Hill Baptist Church for 27 years and Bloomfield Baptist Church, Cadiz, for 17 years.

He also served as moderator of the Little River and Cumberland Valley Association for a number of years. Although retiring from pastoring, he plans to continue preaching and other Christian work.

THE FIRST MEETING of the school year of the Canton Heights PTA was held last week in the school auditorium. Plans for fall and winter activities were discussed.

Mrs. Juanita Kendrick was elected president; Mrs. Ethel Bussell, treasurer, and Mrs. Alecz Davis, reporter.

The meeting was closed with remarks by the principal, Mrs. Hazel M. Henry, and Mrs. M. E. Buckner, a teacher.

Situation Wanted: To Love and Be Loved

I am one of more than at least 35 children available for adoption through social agencies in Marion County. Some of us have been waiting for parents as long as four years or more. We all want parents whom we can love and who will love us so that we can develop and grow and become good citizens.

Our adoptive parents are not required to own their homes or have a large savings account. We want parents whose ages would have permitted us to have been born to them naturally. No more nor less is required of adoptive parents than is expected of good natural parents. All 1 and the others like me want is an opportunity to belong to a family.

I know that there are parents for us because the history of the Negro shows that children are often "taken into" their families with little hesitation. There is no limit to the extent that we "belong" to a family when we are legally adopted, but there are limits to our "belonging" when we are only "taken in." To care for each of us who have been waiting to be adopted for four years, it has cost $2,880 in tax funds; this is nothing, however, when I think of the cost of unhappiness to us who have had to wait so long for our adoptive parents.

All of us have had the psychological tests and physical check-ups that establish us as normal healthy children. Also, there are no legal barriers to our being adopted. The sooner we are adopted, the easier it is for us to adjust and establish ties with adoptive parents.

Will you heed my plea for myself and the others like me by calling the Marion County Department of Public Welfare, ME. 8-1531, or the Children's Bureau, ME. 4-6481, or any child-placing agency?

We're counting on you.

Union Discrimination Faces Death Sentence

Discrimination in the labor movement will be found guilty murdering job opportunities for Negro workers and, alas, sentenced to a sudden and ignominious death. The conviction and subsequent sentencing will reverse an earlier decision by "George, the Gentle Judge" Meany, eloquent AFL-CIO chief, that racial discrimination is only a minor misdemeanor, somewhat less serious than jaywalking and punishable by a maximum of two raps over the knuckles with a balsa pencil.

Foreman of the higher court jury which will impose the death penalty is the outspoken A. Phillip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, who has rallied a million and a half Negro union members behind him in ordering the untimely end of segregation. For some strange reason, Randolph and his supporters think action is preferable to high-sounding phrases. We can't for the life of us see why. Gentle George made it perfectly clear at the recent AFL-CIO convention in San Francisco that he "deplores" racist tactics and discriminatory clauses in union charters. But Randolph seems to think he should actually have DONE something about it. Now, really!

After all, Meany insisted he really was opposed to bigotry and very likely would have taken some definite action, but he of the sweet disposition didn't want to make anybody mad. So we can't really blame him for asking Randolph in dulcet tones, "Who the hell appointed you guardian of all the Negro people?"

Oh, but that Randolph is a cunning one! He sneakily hid his emotions and appeared to remain calm, unlike the noble Meany who became unusually excited and made no effort to hide his true feelings. Such honesty is to be admired.

But Randolph, too stubborn to forget his demands for action, is busy urging the absurd notion that Negro members of the labor movement have the same rights as anybody else. And, what is more, he is guilty of the dastardly crime of leading Negroes in nearly 124 international unions in a fight to achieve those rights. First thing you know, he'll be calling a meeting of Negro labor leaders (Oops! It appears such a meeting has already been set for Nov. 14 in Cleveland — see how sneaky that Randolph is). After the meeting, they'll probably issue a call to Negroes everywhere to organize themselves into regional units.

And don't be surprised if these Negro workers are urged to elect delegates to meet in Detroit next April, at which time they'll be goaded into becoming more union conscious, joining the NAACP and (heaven forbid) pushing a systematic, organized and aggressive fight against discrimination in the labor movement. Mark our word, before you know it, Negroes will be demanding — and getting — representation in all areas of the labor movement, in local, regional and national bodies.

When such hotheads as Randolph and his 1,500,000 fellow Negro workers take their futures in their own hands and demand equality of job opportunity and representation simply because it is their God-given right guaranteed by that most vicious of all documents, the U. S. Constitution — look out!

That sort of thing spreads rapidly, and before you know it second-class citizenship in all areas of American life will be just a pleasant memory!

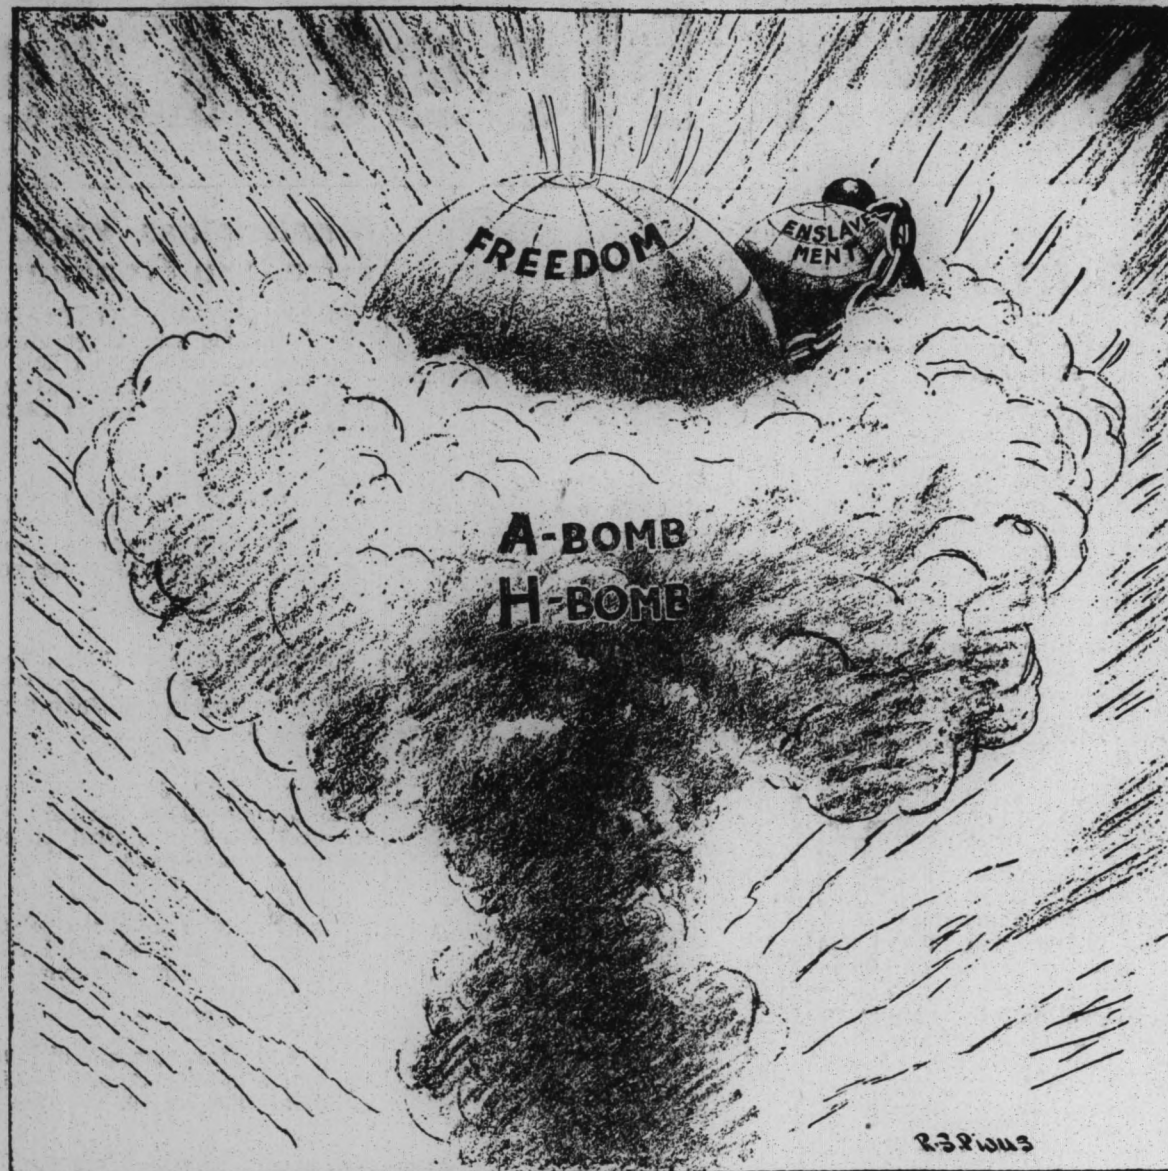

New School Group Offers Logical Choice

For the past 30 years, the election of the Board of School Commissioners has been little more than a formality. Not once during these years has the powerful Citizens School Committee had full-fledged opposition to its slate of candidates for the important school board posts.

But, thanks to the recently organized Committee for Better Schools, this year will be different.

The fact that the Better Schools Committee is supporting the only Negro candidate — Rev. Clinton M. Marsh — warrants more than casual attention. The time has come when the whole community should be represented in all our public affairs. In our belief that the Better Schools slate is truly representative, we are joined by the League of Women Voters, the Parent-Teacher Association, Indiana Civil Liberties Union, Council of Jewish Women, the AFL-CIO and the NAACP.

Convinced, as we are that the Better Schools slate represents the only logical choice in the Nov. 3 elections, particularly for minority groups, we know that it will take something more than being convinced to assure a victory at the polls. That's why we urge you, the voters of Indianapolis, to join us in helping to elect a Board of School Commissioners which will represent ALL the children of the city.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Sharing The Living Christ

By The Union Baptist Alliance
REV. J. T. HIGHBAUGH, Editor

LARGER LESSON: Acts 3.
LESSON PRINT: Acts 3:1-7.
MEMORY VERSE: Acts 3:6.
We continue this week our fellowship with the early church. It is interesting to note that the apostles held close voluntary contact with the temple and the synagogues almost throughout the book of Acts.

The temple leaders had put to death their Lord and subjected them to object persecution. They insistently returned, representing Jesus as their Savior and the only hope of Israel as individuals and as a nation.

Watch this interdenominational cooperation. Note the great sense of forgiveness which underlay this venture, always seeking fellowship with those who believed in Jehovah, always forgiving them for their dogmatic inhumanity to their Christ, yet courageously never surrendering their loyalty to Jesus as their Lord and Messiah.

This is cross-bearing home mission. This is our best formula for closer cooperation with other Protestants, Catholics and even Jews.

Today, anyone can answer Phariseism with Phariseism and any surrender Jesus: Lordship and the holy priesthood of all believers in Christ and bow the knee to a Protestant papacy. Word-centered, our unity can be found.

Look at this outline for a while:

WHO IS LAIN AT YOUR BEAUTIFUL GATE TODAY? (Acts 3:2-5). What beautiful gates there are to our churches today! In large cities as was in the day of our Christ, so it is now and ever shall be.

The crosses of the churches dot our city, but in many cases the hungry and the weak are at our very church doors. In Indianapolis, the Negro crime rate is up, consumption of liquor and alcoholism is a terror at our doors and juvenile delinquency is all about us. If the church has no word, there is no word; if the church does not care, who cares?

I have been out in the streets visiting and taking a census for the Billy Graham crusade. I have attended counseling meetings and discovered how few of the churches are there to help.

Truly the harvest is ripe, but the laborers are few.

WHAT DO YOU HAVE TO GIVE? (Acts 3:6-11). I just talked with you about a hungry, helpless world sprawling at our church doors. They cry for help. They look to you for food and more desperately for the Bread of Life.

So we of all people must be concerned. Of all people we must ask ourselves what we can do about it all. What have I to give? How can I help?

Let's look at some of the things we can do:

1. Give more time. There are 10,080 minutes in a week. Of this time, we sleep 3,360 and we are at work 2,400 minutes. Some way, after mealtime, someone must take more time with the unchurched.

Time is worth more than money. Let's run next door with the Good News. We can speak the Good News of Christ today and say with the poet:

"If you've had a kindness shown,
Pass it on.
'Twas not given thee alone—
Pass it on."

Let it travel down the years

Till it wipe another's tears,
Till in Heaven the deed appears.

Pass it on!"

Why, after 5,760 minutes are used up for work and sleep, there are still 4,320 minutes to be used for good or ill.

2. We can give our talent to sing, distribute tracts, usher, type, play the piano, cook, make a bed, wash or iron. Do what you can, for the least thing you do for Jesus is precious in His sight.

I think there is no slogan more Christian than that of the Boy Scouts, doing a good deed a day. It trains in an altruistic habit and our soul in holy service.

3. We can give a prayer — this is the root of holy concern. Pray an unselfish prayer today. Ask and it shall be given, seek and ye shall find, knock and the door is open.

For everyone who seeks receives or who knocks the door is open (Matt. 7:7).

Give a tithe and an offering. Prove God here with Mal. 3:10-11. This is one of God's great graces. Grow in it. And don't stop giving until He ceases to give to you.

THE GREAT GIFT (Acts 3:12-26). Here is the final word in values: "I have no silver, I have no gold, but such as I have I give." These are the words of Peter and John.

Every time I crossed this Scripture, I wondered what those two poor preachers had. Not money, but just Jesus Himself as the Holy One and Prince of Life. What a gift is Jesus to the lame and hopeless!

So we cry out in our discouragement:

"The Name of Jesus is to share

I love its music to repeat.
It makes life joyful and complete.

The precious Name of Jesus.
Jesus! O, how sweet the name!

I love the Name of Jesus.

The final message of this chapter is this: By putting Jesus to death, the very hope of life is rejected. Think of the Great Gift and the Giver.

Here is the great and living Christ raised to the highest value in life. Here is health given to the mind to obey Peter's will, "Look on us," and then new life to the physical body.

Here is the Healer. The doctors have an ally in the Christian church. And the race as a whole is assured of hope for tomorrow. And all the future hopes of Israel are realized.

Negro Crime And the American Dilemma

By Andrew W. Ramsey

Criminality among the dispossessed is nothing new to America. A hundred years ago, the newly arrived and firmly rejected Irish had their disproportionate share of crime, and during the "Roaring 20s" of this century, the gangster element was largely of Southern European and particularly Italian origin because of the social and economic description of Italian immigrants and their descendants.

RAMSEY

In the time since then, the uneducated and ill-educated Negroes from an agrarian society have crowded into urban communities which completely proscribed their social and economic activities.

Rejected alike by the white majorities in the communities into which they have moved and by their better adjusted and more accommodating fellow Negroes, these Negroes have reacted to their ghetto-within-a-ghetto life by rejecting the values set by a society which is apparently hostile to them.

Deterred by their earlier experience from openly resenting the injustices heaped upon them by the white man, they have given vent to their spleen by directing their hostilities toward those with whom they live in close proximity.

ASSAULT AND MURDER perpetrated upon other Negroes have been either overlooked by the law-enforcement agencies or lightly punished. But the persons thus embarked upon a life of crime are not likely to confine their subsequent acts of criminality to a particular group.

And the community becomes duly alarmed when the Negro criminal perpetrates malevolent acts upon non-Negroes.

The robbery or rape involving a Negro malefactor and a white victim is certain to bring out flag headlines in all of the daily newspapers and give material to the segregationists for general attacks upon Negroes and the extension of democracy.

And "respectable" Negroes are apt to take umbrage and go along with the propaganda that perhaps "we are not ready," just as if the race had committed the crime.

Even the enlightened Negro, who now realizes that segregated education robs the Negro child of precious opportunities to adjust to American society and to achieve his highest potential, is reluctant to equate the high proportion of Negroes running afoul of the law with the denials in housing, education, job opportunities and social outlets which is their lot in current American society.

Beyond viewing the situation with alarm and advocating stricter punishments for Negro crimes against Negroes, the Negro bourgeoisie does little to see that adequate preventive measures are instituted by society.

THIS ELEMENT is not likely to protest very loudly the incidence of police brutality toward Negroes who have previously been brushed with the law.

Two or three years ago, the local branch of the NAACP was severely criticized for undertaking to defend a Negro woman who had been criminally attacked by two policemen simply because the woman had in the past been charged with prostitution.

The NAACP was also denounced for attempting to secure justice for hapless Negroes who were intimidated by police for patronizing a racially mixed tavern because the Negroes whose civil rights had been violated had police records.

The white police, who were exonerated by a Board of Safety which is by no means color-blind, felt free to violate the civil rights of any Negroes and many of the Negroes who objected to the NAACP's defenseless, socially acceptable Negroes have in the intervening period complained of acts of police brutality directed toward their august persons.

Crime and juvenile delinquency are major social problems and while the Negro and, in New York, the Puerto Ricans, have a disproportionate share among their ethnic groups, these minorities cannot solve the problems alone.

Sir Isaac Newton first espoused the theory that to every action there is an equal and opposite reaction. And it makes sense to expect that groups which are accorded the least of everything good and wholesome in society will even things up by having an equally unequal share of things that are bad and anti-social.

THIS PIECE does not mean to imply that if conditions of life in the United States were without racial or minority bias there would be no incidence of criminality among Negroes, Puerto Ricans or other currently proscribed groups.

What this piece does mean to say, however, is that if the racial inequities were removed, there is a great likelihood that crime, committed by members of the present out-groups would be no greater than those committed by members of the favored groups.

And in the meantime, Negroes must let it be known that we have the same right to have criminals, fools and idiots in our racial group without being identified with them as do other racial, religious and national groups.

Negro crime is reprehensible as all crime is reprehensible, and the criminal Negro no more reprehensible than does the white criminal represent his racial group.

It is society's duty to eliminate all crime and the crime of minorities is but a part of the whole picture. It is the duty of law-abiding Negroes, as members of society, to do their part in this elimination.

BETWEEN THE LINES

By Dean Gordon B. Hancock for ANP

The Men of Nineveh and Phoenix

Nov. 3, 1898, was election day and proved to be a fateful day in South Carolina. Negroes were denied their voting privilege and under the leadership of the Tolberts, white and Republicans to the core, they attempted to vote in that election.

HANCOCK

They were told to try first the general election ballot box, and if refused they were to vote in an improvised ballot box which would be sent to Washington as a testimony to the Negroes' desire to vote and also as a testimony of the Negroes' voting strength.

The whites had anticipated the Negroes' plan and had hired a white man to break up the Negro voting. This man arrived on the scene about 10 in the morning and straightway proceeded to smash the improvised ballot box into the dust.

A fist fight ensued. When the fight waxed hot, someone cried "shoot him!" and a shot was fired which felled the man who was hired to break up the voting.

Within a matter of minutes, shooting became general and there was a little battle in progress. Telegrams were sent throughout the state and adjoining states to rush reinforcements to Phoenix, S. C., the seat of the trouble. Reinforcements were to arrive at night on a train named the Cannon Ball.

When the re-inforcements arrived by hundreds and took buggies to Phoenix, a rural village three miles away, Negroes had hid in ambush and fired into the little army of re-inforcements. Telephone wires had been cut down and used for entanglements.

THE NEGROES WERE LED by soldiers just returned from the Spanish-American war. Nobody ever knew how many whites were slain. But within a matter of hours, not a Negro in all the Southland could purchase a thumbnail of powder or a firearm.

The whites set out to avenge their comrades who fell that fateful night. Negroes were rounded up all day and chained to a tree in the Tolberts' church yard. As many as could be rounded up would be set on a log at sunset and shot.

My father was pastor of the local church, and we were in hearing distance of the firing. For nearly two weeks this went on, for each day at sunset the roar of guns and the crack of rifles were stern reminders that in the matter of force Negroes were no match for the whites, and it further reminded both Negroes and whites that the matter of casting a ballot is not a matter of shooting.

The foregoing is easily one of the most tragic episodes of South Carolina and the nation. Nobody knows how many Negroes were slain to avenge the deaths of nobody knows how many whites.

The point being made here is how seriously Negroes took the right to vote, for on the next election day Negroes were swarming about the ballot box even though they could not cast a ballot.

The Phoenix riot of 1898 is a matter of tragic history. But those tragic enactments should set the current generation of Negroes to thinking, as they only casually interest themselves in this serious matter of voting.

In 1898 high school graduates were scarce and college graduates were rare. Today our colleges and universities are bursting at the seams with thousands of Negro youth facing an uncertain future. Are the current generations of educated Negroes worthy of those Negroes who fell at Phoenix?

There is entirely too much political apathy among Negroes, and when the matter is pressed upon them, they too make excuses. It is the fact that whites are apathetic, too.

BUT THE WHITE MAN can afford to be apathetic in ways the Negro cannot. He is figuratively speaking sitting on top of the world and has the power, the glory and the honor.

The Negro is the Southern white man's frame of reference, and if the Southern white man can hold the Negro down by casting a casual vote, he will do so. But if the Negro shows too great political interest, the white voters will turn out in sufficient numbers to keep the balance of power in the hands of the white man.

If the men of Nineveh rise up in judgment to condemn this generation, what about the men of Phoenix?

Ike, Khrushchev Are Both Sincere

To the Editor:

Compared with the average United States farmer, Mr. Garst, who entertained Premier Khrushchev on his rich Iowa farm, is a rare exception. Mr. Garst is no doubt living off his rich farm's proceeds from a better day.

It's safe to say that Mr. Garst acquired his prosperity before President Eisenhower inaugurated his flexible price-support program, which impoverished all the farmers of this country.

I think it is only fair to affirm that Premier Khrushchev is sincere in his efforts to bring about a world system which will bring about a fairer distribution of the world's wealth than presently obtains. And I also think that President Eisenhower is equally sincere in giving his support to the theory that the many should suffer that the few might prosper.

So as far as sincerity is concerned, the contest might end in a draw.

Which of the two systems will triumph is anybody's guess.

Premier Khrushchev and President Eisenhower have one thing in common — they both travel by air transport. May their similarities increase!

Purdue Tries Ohio State; I. U. Invades Nebraska

Grid Unbeatens Can't Break 'Ties' of IHSAA Red Tape

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

Wood, Howe and Cathedral high schools' undefeated football teams rolled on last week toward NOTHING — and thereby hangs part of the reason why the Indiana High School Athletic Association is still very much in court.

Wood's thrill-producing Chucks rolled over Warren Central, 34-0; Cathedral's mighty machine pulverized Shortridge, 26-0, and Howe's perfectionists knocked off Broad Ripple, 19-0.

None of these teams is scheduled to play either of the others this season. Barring upsets we'll wind up with a THREE-WAY TIE for the city championship — which is like saying the Dodgers, Braves and White Sox all have very nice teams, and see you in spring training.

There could be a playoff to settle the matter, except that for reasons too tedious to list, including an overemphasis on basketball, Mr. IHSAA forbids it. Which is why we maintain that one of these days, in some court or another legislature, we the People are quite likely to regain control of our high school athletics.

CATHEDRAL'S VASTLY-IMPROVED Irish raced into the position of the team to beat with their thumping of once-proud Shortridge. The evidence continues to accumulate that the Blue Devils have been the victims this year of too high a rating on the early polls.

That's a cruel fate, because George Gale's boys haven't slumped or stopped trying. They just never were as big or as deep or as gifted as their opening win over Richmond indicated.

Cathedral's backs, running behind great interference, advanced almost at will, touchdowns, being scored by Barry O'Connor, Steve Roesinger and Tom McGinty (a pair). Points after were tallied by Mike McGinley and O'Connor. Roy Smith, the tan junior, played standout defensive game for Joe Dezelan's boys.

SHORTRIDGE, ON THE OTHER hand, could hardly buy a gain except with one of the numerous penalties against the too-rough Irish. The Blue Devils hero in defeat was stubborn fullback Mel Jeter, who was still fighting for yardage at the end of the game. Defensively, Jeter seemed to be making about a third of the tackles.

Big Lou Williams as usual turned in a top pass-catching performance, while Johnny Walker played good defense at the other end of the line. We still want to see the speedy Walker get the ball once in a while.

One difference between the two teams was apparent on the benches. Shortridge had approximately one team in reserve, while Cathedral had about three.

MEANWHILE, WILBERT WINSTON was scoring 3 touchdowns and Frank McGrone 2 as Wood scored by Warren Central. Jerry Wilson kicked 4 extra points. Winston now has 62 points for 5 games and McGrone 60. With a bob-tailed schedule of 8 games, the Chucks are seeking another contest for Friday, Nov. 6. It ought to be one that would have a bearing on the city or state championship.

Big McGrone is quoting Scripture these days, according to Coach Gary Fox. It seems that of one play against Manual, Frank observed: "When I hit that hole in the line I felt like Moses at the Red Sea when the waters parted!"

Let us add that when the waters don't part, the husky speedster has a way of working "miracles" himself.

INCIDENTALLY, Wood has played "all the way" against only one opponent — Southside rival Manual.

The Chuck coaches are worried about a manpower shortage. They recently lost Big Jim Chandler for the season when the 300-pounder broke a bone in his ankle by STEPPING on foot ground.

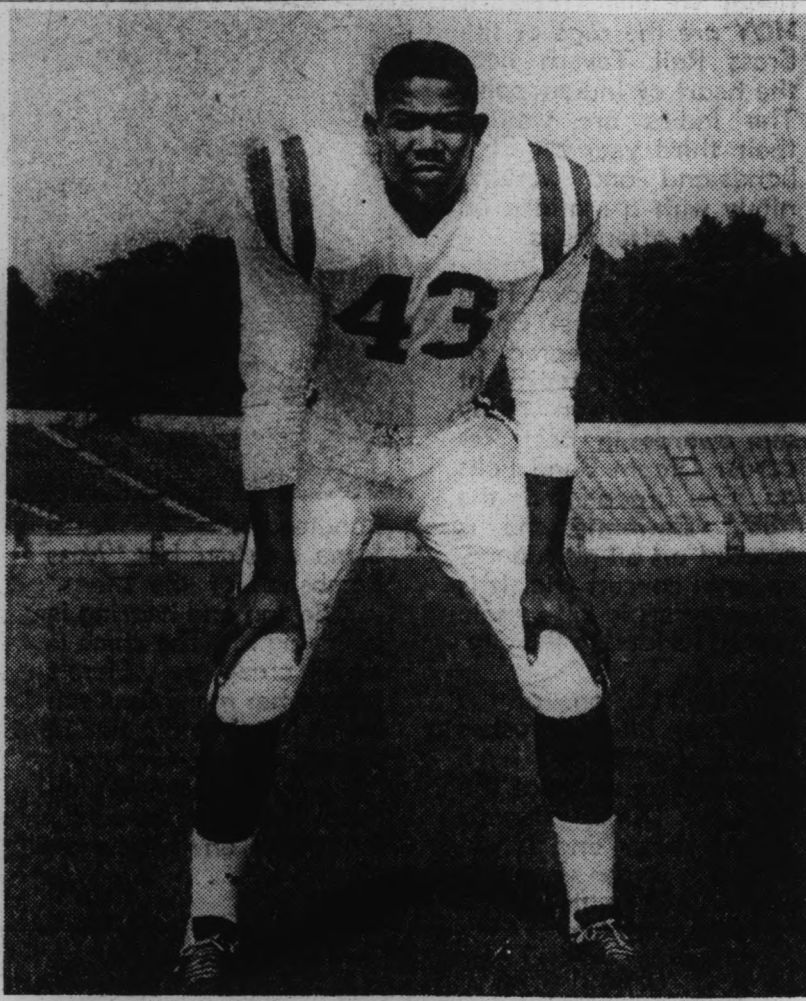

HOWE'S LITTLE DARLAN BILLUPS continued his high-scoring ways with two touchdowns and an extra point against Ripple. He now has tallied 71 points in 5 games.

The Hornets' other TD was racked up by Billups' understudy, Mansfield Lambirth.

This week's games for "The Big 3" are:

Thursday, Oct. 15, 8 P. M. Wood vs. Attacks at Manual.

JOHN HENRY IS A PILE-DRIVEN MAN: Actually, sophomore John Henry Jackson is a passing and broken-field running man (and what a man!) for Indiana University this fall, but we couldn't resist the temptation provided by his name and the old railroad song. The 6-2, 182-pound wingback from Columbus, Ga., was all over the field Saturday as the Hoosiers routed Marquette, 33-13. "Big Jack" scored a touchdown, passed 25 yards to Earl Faison for another, and reeled off runs of 43 and 25 yards.

Liberty Co. Raps FBI Tactics in Gibson's Arrest

CHICAGO (ANP) — The board of directors of Supreme Liberty Life Insurance Co., in their semi-annual session last week, passed a resolution affirming complete confidence in Truman K. Gibson Jr., a member of the board and president of National Boxing Enterprises.

Gibson was arrested on charges of conspiracy for extortion against Don Jordan, welterweight champion.

The board enumerated the outstanding qualities of Atty. Gibson, extolled his career in business, governmental and civic affairs, and decried the extraordinary actions of the FBI in his arrest.

THE ARREST WAS carried out by an unusually large group of FBI agents. Gibson's friends point out he was easily available and would have responded to either a letter or a telephone call from officials.

Instead, in a bizarre operation, the agents tapped his telephone wires; followed him to a social engagement, in what is described as an officious show of authority, arrested him; and ostentatiously clapped irons on him.

6 Bouts on Show at Mayer

Six boxing bouts will feature the first variety show of the season at Mayer Chapel on Saturday, starting at 7 p. m.

The program will also include wrestling and weightlifting. The main attraction will be Johnny McGrone and Conrad Watkins at 185 pounds.

Larry Dalton will tangle with Dale Spears of the Columbus PAL Club in the semifinal. In the card's opener, Rufus Evans, the 80-pound champion, will take on Ronald Lewis.

Other bouts will be: 90-lbs. — Robert Vanhorn vs. Woody Kelly.

100 — Bobby Collins vs. Manuel Odom.

110 — Charles Beasley vs. Al Barnes.

Al Allen is the Mayer Chapel coach.

Tan Stars Sparkle for Boilermakers, Hoosiers

WEST LAFAYETTE — Purdue and Indiana, both with tan stars figuring prominently in important victories last week, will take to the road against tough opposition Saturday.

The unbeaten-but-tied Boilermakers, considered near the top in the nation, play at Ohio State where Coach Woody Hayes is chewing' nails because of two straight losses.

I. U.'s sophomore-studded Hoosiers go to Nebraska.

With Notre Dame journeying to Michigan State, all the collegiate "Big 3" will be playing on foreign soil.

Purdue's mighty ranks, who rubbed Wisconsin in the mud 21-0 last Saturday, include septa standouts JIMMY TILLER, 153-pound setback with a whopping 3.5 average for 10 carries; CLYDE WASHINGTON, top punter with a 44.4 average; pass-grabbing end DICK BROOKS and numerous others.

WILLIE JONES, junior from

Robstown, Tex., is making a bid for alternate fullback since the loss by injury of Jarrin' Bob Jarus. Others in the higher echelons include MANZIE WINTERS, end with an 87-inch reach, and EMORY TURNER, hard-hitting guard.

AT OHIO STATE the Purdue will be up against such performers as sophomore BOB FERGUSON, 217-pound halfback, and end CHARLES BRYANT, also a sophomore.

Attucks Faces Lebanon; Tech to Host Frankfort

Attucks' gridders will play Lebanon at CYO Field on Friday, Oct. 23, in a game starting at 2:30 p. m.

The Tigers were trying to chop Wood as this paper went to press, in a contest scheduled for 2 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 15, at Manual's field. Food for prediction may be found in the fact that Wood turned back Lebanon, 13-7, three weeks ago.

Graham Martin's boys couldn't put their stuff together as they lost to Terre Haute Schulte last week, 18-8. The Tigers had some good early opportunities, but they seemed to pass when they ought to run and vice versa.

A pass play from Mick Kulinski to John Gedrick gave the visitors a 6-point lead, but Attucks retaliated on 33-yard run by Andrew Sims on an inside reverse play. There the score remained knotted until 4th-quarter touchdowns by Jack Doby and Jerry McCormick put the game on ice.

Linebacker Reginald Jones turned in a whale of a defensive performance for Attucks.

MEANWHILE, BOB JONES and Harold Woods scored long-run touchdowns for Tech as the Green-clads played to a 13-13 tie at Marion. Jones carried a pass 60 yards while Woods returned a punt for 75.

Woods also kicked a PAT. The Giants counted on passes to Walt Weaver and Dick Johnson.

Tech was to host Frankfort on Friday, Oct. 16, and Cathedral next Wednesday.

Seecina will be at Shortridge this Friday.

Batley 'Forgotten Man' Of White Sox in Series

By CHARLES J. LIVINGSTON For ANP

CHICAGO — Sherman Lollar saw action daily and Johnny Romano appeared as a pinch-hitter in the 6th game, but Earl Batley — fine catcher though he is — rode the bench throughout the World Series between the Chicago White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers. He was the FORGOTTEN MAN on the Sox team.

The Dodgers, with Manager Walt Alston utilizing their tan talents to the full, clinched the Series with a crushing 9-3 victory before a disillusioned Comiskey Park turnout of 47,653.

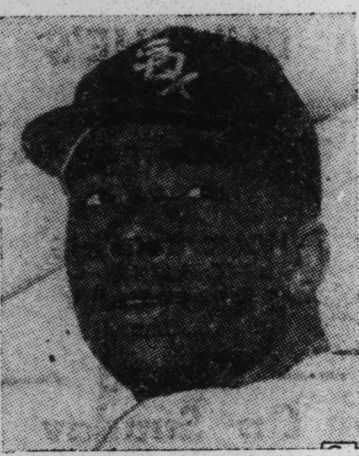

One wonders why Manager Al Lopez of the Pale Hose didn't use the fleet Negro catcher even as a pinch-hitter.

ONE INSTANCE WHERE Batley's speed might have paid off was in the 8th inning of the 2nd game, which the Dodgers won 4-3.

The Sox were rallying in the inning to overcome a 4-2 deficit. Successive singles put Ted Kluszewski and Lollar on 2nd and 1st.

At this point, the veteran Earl Torgerson was sent in to run for Klut. But Lollar, noted for his slowness, was allowed to run for himself. This, in the opinion of many, may have cost the Sox the game.

Al Smith was up next, and he hit a screaming line drive to left-center, the ball bounce-

ing off the wall. By the time it was recovered, Torgy had legged it home. But Lollar, running like a plow horse (Continued on Page 13)

Butler's Hordes Trim Sycamores

Fans who like a winner must have enjoyed watching Butler's legions trample over Indiana State in the Bowl on Saturday, 41-6. Tony Hinkle this season has plenty of lions, including veteran halfback Joe Grissom from Brazil, to feed Christians to.

Being incurable underdog-cheerers, we were equally interested in the play of the outnumbered Sycamores against the odds. State showed a frequently clever pass offense.

A pair of tan receivers who figured prominently were Wally Webb, kingsized junior end who scored a touchdown, and Lloyd Robbs, sophomore halfback who can really pick 'em up and lay 'em down. Both hail from Terre Haute, Wiley. Lehninus from East Chicago Roosevelt failed to get off the bench.

DON'T ASK US HOW, but unbeaten Butler seems to have recruited itself out of opposition. Is there any old body for 11-man football? — C.S.P.

N. C. Golf Course Jimcrow Case in Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, D. C. (ANP) — The Supreme Court next week will hear arguments in the case of five colored citizens of Greensboro, N. C., who were convicted several years ago of violating a state law by "trespassing" on a white golf course.

Leon Wolfe, George Simkins Jr., Joseph Sturdivant, Samuel Murray and Elijah H. Herring were arrested for criminally trespassing on the property of Gillespie Park Golf Course. They were found guilty in Greensboro Municipal Court.

DOWN the ALLEYS With BILL MILTON

William Brown, captain of the new Sacks Bros. team that is leading the Social League, looked like old times as he blasted the pins for a 674.

This is the highest series rolled at the Fun Bowl to date. Brown had games of 219, 238 and 217.

Bill will take the Sacks Bros. team to Chicago on Saturday to play Joe Louis' Brown Bombers.

In the Parker House Singles Classic, two more bowlers — Aaron Vinnegar and Earl Brown — entered the 600 club for the first time.

Vinnegar took 3 games from Crayton with a nice 635, while Brown upset Lovell Walker with a whopping 637.

Bill Rhodman of Detroit, one of the top ten bowlers of the nation, has lost both his legs.

Bill has set quite a few records here at the Fun Bowl. A two-time winner of Sea Ferguson's Annual Classic, he holds the single game high for this event with a 297. A benefit dance for Rhodman is WORLD TRAVELER, internationally-known musician and guitar blues-stylist Scrapper Blackwell, will headline the concert at the American Legion hall, 2523 Northwestern Ave. on Saturday, Oct. 17 with hours from 8:30 until 11. Others on the bill include Guitar Pete and King Booker. Scrapper is a life-long resident of Naptown and recording artist for Vocalion and Victor records. His recordings include "How Long, How Long Blues," "In the Evening," "Shady Lane," etc. He also recorded with the noted Leroy Carr, who died in 1935, and Dot Rice and by himself. Blackwell's guitar solos include "A Blues" and "D Blues" as leaders. Guitar Pete also sings the blues, as does King Booker. Don't miss this attraction this Sat. nite at the American Legion Hall.

DIDIA KNOW that Jackie Robinson turned down an offer to manage the Montreal Royals, but turned it down, because it would cost him too much money to give up his present position? Jackie retired after the 1956 season to accept a post as vice-president with a restaurant chain in New York.

THAT he writes a column that has been nationally syndicated by the New York Post?

THAT Robinson was playing shortstop for the Kansas City Monarchs when he was signed to a Dodger contract in 1945 shortly after the East-West game sponsored by the Negro American League (James Newsom of the M & M Liqueur store, please note this info). He was sent to Montreal Royals, a Dodger farm club in the International League, for the 1946 season. He batted .349 with Montreal to win the International League batting championship. Called up in 1947, Jackie was placed at first base. The next year he played second, first and third base, but from 1949 to 1952 he was the Dodgers' regular second baseman.

THAT in 1949 he won the National League batting honors with a .342 average? He also was named the most valuable player in the National League that year.

THAT he played in six World Series, 1947, 1949, 1952, 1953, 1955 and 1956 and six All-Star games. In the first game of the 1949 series, he stole home against the Yankees.

THAT Jackie Robinson, Mr. Newsom!

THAT Ernie Banks of the Cubs set two major league fielding records for shortstops this year? He committed the fewest errors, 12, and had the highest fielding percentage, .985. He batted in 143 runs to lead both leagues. He missed by seven tying the National League record.

THAT Junior Gilliam's 4 straight hits in Tuesday's game tied a world's record?

THAT they are still talking about the catch Sandy Amoros of the Dodgers made in the 7th game of the 1955 World Series on the long drive by Yogi Berra. It was

'Up Periscope' With Edmond O'Brien Tops Movie Fare at Walker Sunday

MUSICAL UPBEAT

By BOB WOMACK

Using the great expanse of WarnerScope and the brilliance of Technicolor, "Up Periscope," the Warner Bros. film drama coming Sunday to the Walker Theatre, moves from the darkling ocean depths to the sunshiny beaches of love.

The picture, produced by Aubrey Schenck and directed by Gordon Douglas, turns the cameras on the romantic attachment of James Garner and Andra Martin, who hanky-pank in the sunshine when Garner is out of his Naval uniform and free from his dangerous underwater missions.

The teaming of Garner and Miss Martin is one of film season's pleasantest. In "Up Periscope," Garner plays a Navy lieutenant and Miss Martin a WAVE in Intelligence. She's the girl who starts him on his perilous mission and is waiting for him on the pier when he successfully completes it.

Unconcerned with the romance but desperately concerned with his submarine is Edmond O'Brien, playing the sub skipper. Among the heroic crew members are Alan Hale, Frank Gifford, Edward Byrnes and Carleton Carpenter, who tend their respective torpedoes, engines and machineguns and who, with Garner, surface only for love.

Erroll Garner In Carnegie Hall Concert, Oct. 16

NEW YORK (ANP) — Erroll Garner, "The man for whom the piano was invented," was to be in concert at Carnegie Hall Friday, Oct. 16, the sponsor S. Huron agency announced.

The Columbia recording artist, whose hit records have each passed the one million mark, was to be accompanied by bass and percussion.

ing and abetting prostitution, when arrested Aug. 10 in a downtown Cincinnati hotel, was given a reprieve when the case was delayed until Oct. 16.

THAT NEGROES are still spending their money with reckless abandon with merchants who do nothing for them in return. Some do give token employment in our neighborhoods where their business is predominantly Negro. Some are still arrogant with a swagger that implies you MUST buy from me and take my insults to boot. Some even go so far as to disregard the Negro press. And some with 99 percent Negro business spend their advertising money with a local daily. And some talk to and use Negro women like they were ignorant Mississippi slaves. Our people accept this treatment and seem to like it. But when they are brutally handled they come running to the Negro press for succor. What fools we (black) mortals be! Ain't that the gospel truth!

THE REV. LEO LESSER JR. is battling for funds to replace the old Parks Chapel A. M. E. Church in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he is pastoring. So, if you folks out there are in the mood and feel like helping the struggling young preacher from Chattanooga, please send your DONATIONS to the Rev. Leo Lesser Jr., Parks Chapel A. M. E. Church, 2722 Cannon St., Chattanooga, Tenn. Let's send a barrage of dollars to this young and struggling minister, who is determined to carry a niche in the religious world of Chattanooga.

A WOMAN JUDGE IN PA. Gov. Lawrence of Pennsylvania has appointed Mrs. Juanita Kidd Stout as judge of the Municipal Court in Philadelphia, thus becoming the first Negro woman jurist in that city. She was named to succeed the late Judge Herbert E. Millen, Pennsylvania's first Negro judge.

F.L.A.S.H.—A business men's luncheon will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 27 at the new "Y". It will embrace Avenue business and others from all sections of the city. This is the first Avenue business men and women.

DOPE TRAFFIC. We have talked about dope addicts for years to no avail. And now comes a report that certain youngsters whom we know are tied to the "habit" hook, one and sinker. Two "grays" are "shootin'" young addicts in the arms in stairways at Lockfield for so much per shot. And seemingly nobody has been caught yet. And we are being asked why the couple was freed in police court when caught with a large amount of dope at the airport. Our answer was they were turned over to the Feds for stronger actions. Incidentally, a 29-year-old man who pleaded guilty in Federal court to three counts of a federal indictment charging him with the transportation and sale of marijuana, faces a possible 5-20 year prison term. He is in jail pending a presentence investigation. Maybe the Feds can put a stop to this wholesale and wanton traffic in narcotics, which seems to be so easy to get in this man's town.

MAYOR BOSWELL wins this one. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams, 2948 Sangster, will be able to keep their modest home and all 80 feet of their front yard. Thanks to Mayor Boswell, who intervened in their behalf. So, the Redevelopment Commission has bowed to the wishes of the Mayor and will permit the $10,000 improvement home (paid for) to remain in the slum clearance area, north of Douglas Park.

BREZZING ALONG WITH THE NEWS. Atty. Rufus Kuykendall, now headquartered in Washington with the Civil Rights Commission, was in town for a visit with friends and to do a little "politicin'". The well known and popular ex-deputy prosecutor and assistant city atty. says Washington, D.C., is THE PLACE. (If you dig!) The fella is liable to run for mayor down there one of these days. Donchakno! TV and movie star Sammy Davis Jr. really turned it on last Thursday night during his first on the Big Party emceed by Rock Hudson with such stars as Tallulah Bankhead, Esther Williams and company over channel 8.

WE ARE still of the opinion that a POLICEMAN should be stationed in the Lockfield area around the clock. Lockfield is a small town within itself and should be given ample police protection. What with all the robbing and dope peddling goin' on day in and out, and especially around the first of the month. Something for you good citizens to think about!

How about Mr. Carl Anderson? Incidentally, Mr. Anderson is doing a fine job as 12th ward Republican bigwig, and we are sure that he'll do all he can for the people living in that part of the city. Carl is out daily and niftily beatin' the bushes for the Grand Old Party come election day Tuesday, Nov. 3.

MR. AND MRS. LEVERETT Bronaugh (Louise) and Bobby Summers motored to Dayton 'other week end for a quick visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. May Graham is back in town following a plane trip to Washington, D.C., after spending 2-weeks with relatives in the nation's capital. Pat Riley's tavern is in the process of remodeling under new management, which takes over in a few days. Bobby Campbell dropped in wigwam last Sunday. Forgotten Man was nailed at the plate on a fine relay from Dodger shortstop Maury Wills to catcher Johnny Roseboro.

With Battey on the basepath, the run might have scored and the game been saved. Earl is certainly faster than Torgy — and younger.

BATTEY COULD NOT possibly have hurt the Sox in Series play. Earl is not a fence-buster. It is true, but he is one of the finest young catchers, a good handler of pitchers, and possesses the "strongest, most accurate throwing arm in the American League" — to quote the Sox.

The only excuse Lopez could make for keeping Battey out of the lineup would be his worn statement that Earl is a weak hitter. But Battey has not really had much of a chance to prove his worth at the plate.

In 26 games during the regular season he went to bat 64 times, compared with 127 for Romano, the other rookie catcher. He collected 14 hits, including 2 triples and 2 home runs, for a .219 batting average.

Romano had 37 hits, 5 homers and batted .291. However, everyone knows that Battey is a far better backstop than Romano, and he might have found the batting range with a little more work at the plate.

FOR BATTEY, the Series meant a lot. At 24 he was getting a chance which many players do not enjoy during their entire major league careers. He would have loved to be in there swinging with the rest. Who knows? He might even have been a Series hero.

As it turned out the only Series honors Battey enjoyed — besides sharing in the record players' pool — was to take batting practice with his teammates and sit it out in the dugout. He deserved a better fate.

This was Battey's second season in the big time. Signed after graduation from Los Angeles Jordan high school in 1953, he played four seasons of minor league ball before coming up to stay with the Sox. In 1954, while with Waterloo in the Three-I League, he was voted Rookie of the Year.

Platters on Trial For Vice Charges

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Platters, internationally famous rock 'n' roll singing group, went on trial here last week on charges of aiding and abetting in prostitution growing out of their arrests in a downtown hotel last Aug. 10.

In the raid, four girls, three white and one Negro, all from nearby Hamilton, O., were seized. They were charged with engaging in prostitution, lewdness and assignation.

The four girls are Jarie Davis, Virginia Lee Jones, Patsy Sue Howard and Helen Harrison, all 19.

Municipal Judge Gilbert Bettman was to rule on hte case later.

Musical Upbeat

Southland's newly organized Joyette Record Company with headquarters at 5204 Delaware Drive, announced recently that he is currently looking for more talent.

Already signed up on the label is bandleader Billy Rudeph and his Trio. Billy will have a recording session later this month.

THE CAT is a local musician, who started his musical career during the late 40's as a pianist with a teenage crew called "The Wild Reeters." He is considered a good arranger and composer and plays valve trombone, accordion and guitar.

A few of his outstanding arrangements include — "One O'Clock Jump," "Take the A Train," and "Blue Lou" and "Temper's Birthday" plus others.

James E. Haycraft, a gifted songwriter is another addition to the fast rising disk firm.

With a repertoire of over 1,000 songs to his credit, James has all the capabilities of becoming an asset to the Joyette label.

He recently filed suit against singer Lloyd Price for use of portions of his "Substitute For You" in Price's smash hit "Just Because."

ONE OF THE FIRST releases is Dan Harrison, ex-disc-jockey singing "Piney Brown's Blues," with "He's Real Gone" on the flip side. It looks like this platter will make the disc-jockey polls in the very near future.

For further information on this up and coming sepi recording company write to — Brazzle Tobin, director of Bradstone Public Relations Company, 1221 Magazine Street, Louisville, Ky.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Efforts will be made by the Theatrical Dept. of the Recorder to have President Summers of the Joyette Record Company here the night of the annual Recorder Xmas Benefit show to dig the talent.

YOU could be tomorrow's recording star, so hurry and sign up for this show of shows. Do it today not tomorrow. Success in the entertainment field might be waiting just around the corner for you.

STATON SWINGIN' IN NEW ALBUM: Dakota Staton, a young woman who has created quite a commotion in the entertainment world since she began recording for Capitol Records 4 years ago, comes on strong in her new album, "Time to Swing." With Sid Feller conducting the orchestra, Dakota "performs" on every tune in the album — whether happy up-tempo or not-so-happy blues — with polish and power.

"Time to Swing" is available in both stereo and monophonic sound.

THE MUSICAL Upbeat leaves these lines to live by: Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today. Since we can not always get what we like, let us like what we can get.

County Court in February 1956, and each sentenced to 15 days in jail.

THE CASE WAS appealed to the Superior Court of Gilford County and finally to the Supreme Court of North Carolina. The substance of the opinions of the courts was that citizens could not be denied equal privileges to use the golf course on account of race or color.

But, the opinions continued, the state of North Carolina has never denied the right of colored citizens to play on this golf course, providing they become eligible as members on the same basis as white citizens. The golfers insist they were denied the privilege of using the course solely because of their race — a denial of their constitutional rights.

who has already lost quarter-back Ross Fichtner in addition to Jarus, recently expressed his concern about the hard tackling by little Tiller. He said Tiller is his own worst enemy.

"Take him against somebody like Bob White (Ohio State's big fullback)," Mollenkopf said. "Tiller will keep hitting him but after a couple of times you hear bones cracking . . . and they're not White's."

PHIL DICKENS' HOOSIERS, who romped 33-13 over Marquette, include even more Negro stars. Among the brightest are JOHN HENRY JACKSON (see photo); RONNIE McCauley from Indianapolis Tech, who gained 38 yards on 4 carries Saturday; WIL SCOTT, who intercepted a pass and raced 74 yards to start the I. U. scoring; rugged defensive guard ELVIN CALDWELL and end EARL FAISON, a 6-5, 227-pound giant from Newport News, Va.

Indiana will be a deep-down underdog at Nebraska. The Cornhuskers ran up a 32-12 victory over Minnesota, which a week later beat Indiana 24-14.

CLAY WHITE, a junior from Toledo, O., paced the Huskers over the Gophers. The stumpy, churning runner registered one touchdown on a 34-yard run, another on a 4-yard sortie and a third on a 3-yard pass.

Intermarriage Is No Solution To America's Racial Problems

Whether interracial couples marry ought to be left for them to decide, said Dr. Gardner Taylor, first Negro member of the New York Board of Education, in a recent interview with Australian reporters.

He added that, in his opinion, people who marry across color barriers must be prepared to contend with added strains of marriage.

Dr. Taylor and his wife are on a six-week visit to Australia on an invitation from the Australian Baptist organization.

"In my own country," Dr. Taylor said in his press conference, "the cruelest and most painful element of the whole color problem has been the traditional denial to the Negro male of his status as head of the family."

"IN THE SOUTH, the economic barriers against the Negro male have prevented him from providing for his family on a standard equal to that of the white population."

"His wife has had to help him by going out to work and frequently she has been able to earn more than her husband."

"This has taken away his status as head of the family."

"The South," he continued, "has also tried to throttle the expression of opinion by the Negro male and, until recently, has been successful."

"Negro women, on the other hand, have been given greater latitude because of traditional Southern courtesy and also because, unhappily, white men continue to have sexual relationship with Negro women."

"The result is that the Negro males' status is lowered still further."

Dr. Taylor, president of the New York City Protestant Council and pastor of Concord Baptist Church, Brooklyn, is optimistic about the outcome of the racial problem in the United States.

HE DOES NOT BELIEVE amalgamation is the solution to the problem. In the past 11 years, he said, he has performed about 300 marriages, only three or four of them interracial.

"Amalgamation of the races by intermarriage would take far too long to be even considered as a solution to the race problem," he said.

"Most Negroes, however, share the feeling that the United States is making great moves in dealing with the race problem."

"In Louisville and San Antonio, Negroes and whites have been integrated in the schools without trouble, and throughout the rest of the country, we know we have the whole weight of the judiciary behind us.

"The position is progressively better. It won't be cleared up tomorrow, but we are well on the road."

Dr. Taylor believes that the greatest disservice done to the white South has been by politicians.

He quoted Ralph McGill of The Atlanta Constitution, who reported that Southern politicians were saying one thing in their clubs and another to their electors. In their clubs, the politicians admitted they couldn't hold back the law on the matter of integration, but told their constituents they could.

"As a result, the people of the South are passing through a phase of deep psychological shock," Dr. Taylor said.

The visitor said he has had no indication whatsoever of color prejudice or discrimination in Australia.

"And I don't expect to find any," he added.

He appeared on Australia's "Meet the Press" TV show.

Don't Just Worry About TB — Get X-Ray and Be Sure

"I just found out that my next door neighbor has TB. She's in the hospital with it now. Her little girls and my kids have always played together. I'd hate to break it up, but I'm worried. Can my children catch TB from hers?"

The woman calling the TB Association sounded worried, all right. She was told that when one member of a family gets sick with TB, the rest of the family is tested promptly to see if they have been infected. If they have, they are treated too. They wouldn't be likely to be running around, a danger to others.

It was also explained that although TB is infectious, it isn't catching in quite the same way as measles is, for instance. You can catch measles just by sitting next to somebody in the bus who has measles. You can get TB that way, it isn't impossible, but you're not likely to.

USUALLY, YOU WON'T get infected with tuberculosis unless you've been in long, close contact with somebody who has TB in its active form.

But because an active case of TB is infectious for anyone who's been around it a long time, the doctor reports each new case he diagnoses to the local health department, which sees that others who have been exposed get the necessary tests. So the neighbor's husband and children have undoubtedly been checked and pronounced okay.

Finally, the anxious mother was told that she could set her mind completely at rest by getting her own children tuberculin tested and, if the tests were positive, following up with chest X-rays. That's a sensible precaution for anyone to take.

little personal expense.

Sgt. Black, whose office is at 108 Federal building, is always available to discuss the possibilities of travel and the many other advantages of service in the Women's Army Corps.

WACs can travel either as part of their work or on the 30 days leave time they earn each year, he said. A WAC stationed in Germany for instance, could visit many adjoining European countries.

Or, if he happened to be stationed in Japan, she could visit other Far-Eastern lands.

In Honolulu, WACs spend much of their off-duty time at the famous Waikiki Beach and enjoy their vacations at Kilauea Military Camp on the largest island in the Hawaiian group.

Since members of the Armed Services, even while on leave, are permitted to use military transportation, WACs are sometimes able to take long vacation trips at very low cost.

Interested persons should write Dr. McLean for more detailed information.

RED CROSS CITES TWO

Mrs. Irene H. Jones received a Red Cross pin for the 20 years of volunteer work she had performed with the local chapter. Mrs. Jones is a teacher at School 42, Mrs. Blanche Cross of the public school system also received an award for service.

THE FIRST PHASE was to begin at the high-school level in September, 1957; the second phase called for desegregation of the junior high schools two or three years later, and the third phase provided that elementary desegregation be completed by 1963.

Since the filing of the case, there have been more than three dozen hearings in various federal courts, including the U. S. Supreme Court.

Attorneys for the Negro students have been successful in preventing the school authorities from leasing public school buildings to a private corporation established to operate all-white schools.

In June, 1959, a special three-judge district court ruled the school-closing laws, sponsored by Gov. Faubus, invalid. The governor's attorneys have indicated they will appeal this ruling directly to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Attorneys for the Negro students are Thurgood Marshall, chief legal counsel for the NAACP, New York, and Wiley A. Branton, Pine Bluff, Ark.

THE HUNTERS will leave for new duties in the East.

I enjoyed my visit to Greater St. Mark Baptist Church last Sunday for the 11 o'clock worship. Rev. A. Berrard, pastor, brought a very fine message.

Also enjoyed was my visit to New Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday night.

I understand that Rev. C. M. Hunt, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church, is ill in his home. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Congratulations to Barnes Methodist Church for 75 years of service on the Northside.

The church celebrated its anniversary Sunday, with Rev. S. P. Jenkins, pastor of Simpson Methodist Church, as guest speaker for the afternoon service.

Rev. Paul Ayers, pastor, was also honored for his faithful service.

THE CLOSING THOUGHT for this week comes from the Billy Graham crusade newspaper, published daily Tuesday through Saturday.

"Yes, we're praying for a revival," said a church woman, "but we don't expect it. And others are praying for it, but I don't know of anyone who expects it."

Church Events

By WILLA THOMAS

The first week of the Billy Graham crusade is now history, with thousands of people attending, a large number of them making decisions for Christ.

I am hoping that more members and leaders of our churches will attend the meeting and bring the unsaved.

Why not dial the crusade "Minute Meditation" at ME. 5-2581. Then pray for 10 minutes each morning that God will continue to bless the meeting and Dr. Graham.

Let me urge you to attend the leadership training classes which open Monday at Central Christian Church. You will be greatly benefited.

Participating in last week's Billy Graham meeting as singers, ushers and counselors were members of New Bethel Good Samaritan, Greater St. Mark, St. John, Twenty-Fifth Street and First, North Indianapolis, Baptist churches; Witherspoon United Presbyterian, St. John A.M.E. and Barnes Methodist churches.

Rev. Andrew J. Brown, pastor at John Baptist Church, brought a group each night last week.

Anniversary congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Bell and Rev. and Mrs. Paul L. Ayers. May God's blessing continue with each of you.

MY MOTHER, Mrs. Gertrude Thomas, is in Methodist Hospital. We ask your prayers for her.

Mr. Laura Lane of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, recently confined for several weeks in Detroit's Ford Hospital, returned home last week and was much improved.

Ministers who have not registered for the clinical pastoral training session on alcoholism to be held Tuesday, Nov. 17, 1-3-30, at Central State Hospital may do so now by sending a card to Chaplain R. C. Alexander at the hospital or by calling ME. 7-5511.

Many churches here and throughout the nation are planning Layman's Sunday observances for Sunday.

THE AREA TRAINING conference for camp leaders will be held Oct. 19-23 at the Presbyterian Camp Pyoca.

Those who plan to attend may call Presbyterian headquarters here for information.

Members of the social service division of the Church Federation will meet Wednesday of next week in the Lincoln Room of the Central YMCA at 12 noon.

I am sorry to have missed the farewell reception given last week for Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hunter for a number of years. Mr. Hunter has headed the division of social work for the Church Federation.

The Hunters will leave for new duties in the East.

Wilbur Edmondson

Funeral services were held Oct. 12, in Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home for Wilbur Edmondson, 57, with burial in Floral Park cemetery.

Mr. Edmondson, a native of Greencastle, died Oct. 7, in his home at 763 Lynn.

He had lived in Indianapolis 37 years and was employed as a core-maker at the C & G Foundry.

Evelyn Armfield

Funeral services for Mrs. Evelyn Armfield, 55, were held Oct. 10, in the Stuart Mortuary. Burial was in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Armfield, died Oct. 7, in Toledo. She was a member of Ebenezer Baptist Church and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Elks Lodge of that city.

Survivors include the mother, Mrs. Maude Moore, Toledo; her father, Sam Demaree, Indianapolis; two aunts, Mrs. Josephine Burns and Mrs. Molly Young, Indianapolis; and two uncles, Charles Coleman and Oscar Coleman.

"Surely in these days we should pray and expect God to do great things in Indianapolis and the great state of Indiana. If we meet God's conditions of II Chronicles 7:14 — 'If My People which are called by My Name shall humble themselves and pray, and seek My Face and turn from their wicked ways then will I hear from Heaven and will forgive them their sins and heal their land.' — then, unitedly, we can say, 'My expectation comes from God.'"

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles". It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Done) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H. Ask for Preparation H suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Absolute satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. In Memoriam

EUGENE L. HINES

HINES—In loving remembrance of our husband and father, EUGENE L. HINES, who passed away October 18, 1956. In memory you're living still. Your vacant place no one can fill. Frankie M. Hines, Wife, Children and Grandchildren Mrs. Melvin J. Miller and Family, Mrs. Edward Banks and Family.

MRS. CORA JOHNSON

JOHNSON—In loving memory of our dear mother and sister, MRS. CORA JOHNSON, who passed away October 5, 1958. Our lip cannot tell how we miss you, Our heart cannot tell what to say, God alone knows how we miss you, In our home that is lonesome today. THE FAMILY.

TAYLOR—In loving remembrance of our dear brother, GEORGE W. TAYLOR, who passed away October 17, 1944. "There is a link, death cannot sever, Love and remembrance, last forever." Sadly missed by His Two Sisters Malinda Johnson, Katie Taylor.

MRS. WILLIE DEGRAPHENREED

DEGRAPHENREED—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, MRS. WILLIE DEGRAPHENREED, who passed away October 18, 1958. When a mother breathes her last farewell, The stroke means more than tongue can tell. The world seems quite another place, Without the smile of mother's face, And while she lies in peaceful sleep, Her memory we shall always keep. Deandra Bransford, Daughter, Hayes Bransford Jr. Grandson.

MILES—In loving memory of my husband, PERCY MILES, who passed away October 23, 1958. Mrs. Ruth Miles, Wife.

RASDALL—In loving memory of, WALTER RASDALL, who passed away October 12, 1958. One year has passed since that sad day, When one we loved was called away, God took him home it was His will, Within our hearts he liveth still. Mrs. Katie Rasdall, Wife, Nathan and Walter Rasdall, Sons, Mrs. Mary E. Colbert, Daughter, Mrs. Josephine Nelson, Daughter.

MAUDE Z. LEE

LEE—In loving memory of our devoted mother, MAUDE Z. LEE, who passed away October 14, 1955. Four years have come and gone, Sweet memories of you linger on; The empty chair, the empty space, Are things that time cannot erase. Children and Grandchildren.

HAYES—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, MRS. RUTH HAYES, who passed away October 13, 1957. The memory of her dear wee ways, Will linger with us all our days; Sweetest flower, too sweet to stay, God took her home to show us the way. Husband and Children.

LILLIAN SUE HESTER

HESTER—In loving memory of our daughter, LILLIAN SUE HESTER, who passed away October 21, 1957. The cup which my Father hath given Shall I count it bitter? Ah nay, Though full of sorrow, And deepest heart agony, I cannot tell why He hath given it, And may not know till that day, When the tears and the grief and the anguish, Forever has passed away, Oh darling we loved you so very, very much, Cecelia Walton, Mother and Family.

SMITH—In loving memory of my husband, EULIS S. G. SMITH, who passed away October 15, 1958. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last, The world's weary troubles, trials are past, In silence he suffered, in patience he bore, Till God called him home to offer to more. Sleep on dear husband and take your rest, We miss you most who loved you best. Sadly missed by Wife, Children and Grandchildren.

2. Cards Of Thanks

HUNT—We wish to convey to our kind friends, neighbors and relatives our sincere thanks and deep appreciation for kindness shown us during the illness and at the passing of our dear mother, MRS. EMMA HUNT. We especially thank Rev. W. F. Sweet, for the comforting eulogy and Rev. Paul L. Ayers, for his consoling remarks, the soloists, those who sent cards, telegrams, floral offerings, donors of cars and personal courtesies. The Jacobs Bros. Funeral Home for their services. To each of you who helped in any way to lighten our great loss, may God bless you. Lillian Turner, Bertha Anderson, Clementine Mischell, Lucille Gooch and Phyllis Rogers, Daughters, John and David Clardy, Sons.

NOTICE ON FINAL ACCOUNT, ETC., TO ALL PERSONS INTERESTED IN THE ESTATE OF

STEELWORKERS:

This is the Companies' 15¢ Offer!

Your Union Turned it Down

In response to President Eisenhower's urgent request for an immediate non-inflationary settlement through the voluntary processes of free collective bargaining, the Steel Companies have done two things:

First, they have made a specific, 15-cents-an-hour package offer providing for increased wages and benefits over the period of a two-year agreement.

Second, they have scaled down to an irreducible minimum their requests for improvements in contract language, adhering only to those changes that would clearly operate in the long-range interests of the steelworkers themselves.

Details of the Offer

Specifically, the Companies offered to improve the pension, insurance, and supplemental unemployment benefit programs in the first year of a two-year agreement, and to increase wage rates at the beginning of the second year by amounts ranging from 6 cents for the lowest job class to 12 cents for the highest job class — the total package to increase the Companies' employment costs by 15 cents per man-hour worked, or about 2 percent per year of total employment costs which, before the strike, amounted to $3.70 per hour.

As a part of this offer to increase wages and benefits, the Companies called upon the Union to join in working out mutually satisfactory amendments to the prior basic labor agreements in four general areas. The purpose of these amendments would be:

1. To continue payment of the 17-cents-per-hour cost-of-living adjustment which was in effect at the expiration of the prior labor agreements; but to eliminate provisions for future changes either up or down.
2. To enable management to take reasonable steps to eliminate waste and to improve efficiency; but to protect and preserve the right of employees to resort to grievance and arbitration procedure under which management would be required to justify fully the reasonableness of its actions.
3. To permit flexibility in the scheduling of work to conform reasonably with the requirements of the business.
4. To deter wildcat strikes by permitting the discharge of any employee engaging in such action and by clarifying the responsibility of local unions in respect to wildcat strikes occurring within their jurisdiction.

Companies' Offer Flexible

In the bargaining sessions, the Companies pointed out that the offer of a two-year 15-cents-an-hour package of improved benefits and wages was purposely stated in terms which would provide maximum flexibility in arriving at the distribution of this sum as between wages and benefits, so as to give the greatest possible satisfaction to the employees. It was also pointed out that the Companies were entirely willing to consider alternate benefits should the immediate effect of improved insurance benefits upon take-home pay present problems that would preclude the arrival at a settlement of the strike.

They also pointed out that this offer to increase employment costs by 2 percent per year represents the maximum that can be undertaken at this time without resulting in an inflationary increase in production costs.

Union Demands More Inflation

The Union leaders on the other hand persist in their demands for highly inflationary wage and benefit increases; and proposed a settlement that would call for employment cost increases that could amount to 60 or more cents per hour over a three-year period. The difference between the 20 or more cents an hour increased cost per year of the Union's proposal and the 7½ cent annual increased cost of the Companies' offer would be sheer inflation and must be recognized as such.

Any such increase in steelmaking costs would further injure the competitive position of the American steel industry in markets both at home and abroad, and would endanger the job security of American steelworkers. Similarly any failure on the part of the Union to join in writing an agreement which will provide reasonably for the more efficient operation of the mills can only work to the disadvantage of the members of the Union and of the American people as a whole.

Union Leaders Prolong Deadlock

The Union's rejection of the Companies' offer—coming as it does on the heels of President Eisenhower's appeal for a voluntary, non-inflationary settlement, clearly reveals the Union leadership's responsibility for the continuing deadlock.

Throughout the negotiations the Union leaders have insisted upon an inflationary, something-for-nothing settlement. They have offered nothing whatever in exchange for the increased wages and benefits they seek. They have resisted every effort to provide for increased efficiency of operations through improvement in the language of the former contracts. They have insisted that their members shall continue, year after year, to take more out of the business than they put into the business.

The Companies, on the other hand, have — from the outset of the negotiations — had one consistent objective: To obtain a settlement that would not result in an increase in their production costs over the term of the new agreement. That is the only kind of settlement that would not have serious inflationary consequences.

It is the only kind of settlement that would help preserve for the steelworkers, and for every American, the value of their earnings, savings and pensions; and would enable the Companies to compete more effectively with foreign steel and other competing materials, thus increasing output and employment.

It is the only kind of settlement that would serve the best interests of the entire nation.

The Steel Companies' Position

To sum up the situation as it stands today, therefore, the Companies want to make their position crystal clear:

They did not—and do not—want a shutdown of their operations.

They do not want their employees to lose wages and employment because of a continued shutdown.

They have not sought Government intervention in any form; but instead have exhausted every effort to secure a voluntary settlement that would be in the best interest of all.

They are not trying to undermine or destroy the Union.

They do not seek to take away the basic rights of any employee.

They are not asking for the arbitrary right to change local work practices without employee recourse to grievance procedure and arbitration.

They do want to make a reasonable settlement and to live with the Union and its members in peace and harmony.

But they are not willing to buy peace at the price of making agreements which will continue to promote inflation and which will prevent them from taking reasonable steps to improve the efficiency of their businesses.

So long as the Union insists on wage and benefit increases of inflationary proportions, and refuses to deal reasonably with the problems arising out of some of the contract provisions, no agreement will be possible.

One wonders when, if ever, the Union leaders will recognize that the customers, the stockholders and the public generally, as well as the steelworkers, are entitled to fair treatment.
